USE OF THIS CATALOG – 2023-2024

This catalog is a reference for admission to, studies at, and graduation from Simmons College of Kentucky. It provides information about degree plans, costs, scholarships, financial assistance, and campus resources. The provisions of this catalog do not constitute a contract, expressed or implied, between Simmons College of Kentucky and any applicant, student, student's family, faculty, or staff member. The College reserves the right to withdraw courses at any time, and change fees, tuition, rules, calendar, curriculum, degree programs, degree requirements, and graduation procedures without prior notice. Changes will become effective at the time so determined, and the changes may apply to both prospective students and those already enrolled. Students are encouraged to review the catalog on the College’s website (www.simmonscollegeky.edu) periodically. This catalog is not intended to, nor does it contain all regulations that relate to students. Additionally, the College reserves the right to correct errors that may have occurred in the printing of this document. Familiarity with the catalog, maintaining a satisfactory grade point average, completion of degree program requirements, and satisfying all other requirements for graduation are the responsibilities of each student. Advisors are available for clarification and counsel, but the final responsibility remains with the student to meet degree program requirements.

CATALOG JURISDICTION

Students dropping out of Simmons College of Kentucky at any time during their college career for a period of one year or more shall be considered to be under the jurisdiction of the current catalog in use at the time of their return. The academic rules and programs in this catalog are effective for all students who enter Simmons College of Kentucky during the Fall 2023 semester for no more than six consecutive years from the time of initial matriculation. If a student has not completed a degree program within this time frame, he or she will be under the jurisdiction of the then current catalog.

Students are subject to the rules published in the current Student Handbook and Academic Catalog each semester they attend. Should there be a conflict of policy, the policy of the Student Handbook supersedes that of the Catalog. No academic program changes will be made in the Student Handbook.
POLICY OF NON-DISCRIMINATION

Simmons College of Kentucky complies with all applicable federal and state nondiscrimination laws and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national or ethnic origin, sex, age, or disability, consistent with the Assurances of Compliance with Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Executive Order 11246 as issued and amended; Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, as amended; Section 202 of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990; and Section 303 of the Age Discrimination Act of 1975.

EQUAL ACCESS TO COLLEGE EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMS

Simmons College of Kentucky provides equal access to all educational programs to every qualified student without regard to educationally unrelated disabilities. However, if any student requires special individual services or equipment, the student is responsible for informing College officials of such needs, and the student will be responsible for the expenses related thereto. This policy includes the expense of providing personal attendants, medical technicians, and other special services.

DISCLOSURE OF EDUCATIONAL RECORDS

Information protected by the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) of 1974 may not be made available to any person without the written authorization of the student except in the following cases: to officials of other schools in which the student intends to enroll, and other persons and agencies identified by statute. Under FERPA, employees of the College may be given access to student information based on having a legitimate educational need. Other information about the privacy of student records may be obtained from the Office of the Registrar.

FROM THE PRESIDENT

It is with great pleasure that I welcome you to Simmons College of Kentucky, an esteemed institution with a rich history and a commitment to providing a high-quality education. As the distinguished HBCU in Louisville, we pride ourselves on our legacy of over 140 years in higher education. Simmons College of Kentucky is dedicated to remaining a premier, urban, private, Christian, historically black, liberal arts college. We offer a wide range of baccalaureate and master's degrees, ensuring that our students receive a well-rounded education that prepares them for success in a global society. Our goal is to provide an unapologetically black academic experience, empowering our students to make meaningful contributions to their communities and beyond.

One of the hallmarks of our curriculum is its inclusivity, social relevance, and cultural responsiveness. We believe in equipping our graduates with the skills and knowledge they need to be critical thinkers, change agents, and highly skilled practitioners. Through our programs, we strive to prepare students holistically, nurturing their intellectual, emotional, and spiritual growth. At Simmons College of Kentucky, we are proud to have attracted renowned scholars from around the world who contribute to the vibrant intellectual community within our institution. Together, we work towards our mission of providing access and opportunity to a high-quality education for all students.

As you navigate your journey at Simmons, whether you are a current student, a dedicated faculty member, or a committed staff member, remember that you are part of a community that values excellence, diversity, and the pursuit of knowledge. Together, we will continue to shape the future, making a positive impact within our society.

I encourage each of you to take full advantage of the resources and opportunities available to you at Simmons College of Kentucky. Invest in your education, engage in meaningful discourse, and embrace the challenges that will help you grow personally and professionally.

In Christian Service,

Dr. Kevin W. Cosby

HISTORY OF SIMMONS

In August of 1865, twelve Black Baptist Churches met at Fifth Street Baptist Church in Louisville, Kentucky and organized the state Convention of Colored Baptist Churches in Kentucky. Because there was no place in the state where Blacks could obtain a college education, members of the Convention soon began discussing the need to create a school for the training of Negroes, many of whom were one generation removed from slavery.

Having first given consideration to Frankfort, Kentucky as the home for the school, members of the Convention instead decided in 1869 to locate what would be known as the Kentucky Normal Theological Institute in Louisville. It was not until ten years later in 1879, however, that definite steps were taken for the opening of the school. In November of that year the trustees of the Convention of Colored Baptist Churches in Kentucky purchased four acres of land on the corner of 8th & Kentucky Streets in Louisville that immediately served as the campus for the school.

That same year, the school opened its doors under the direction of its first President Rev. Elijah P. Marrs. After a brief one-year tenure, Rev. Marrs was succeeded by Dr. W.J. Simmons. It was under the leadership of Dr. Simmons that the school began to flourish in such a way that it would eventually be renamed Simmons University in appreciation for his contributions.

During his ten-year tenure from 1880 to 1890, the school became a full university and expanded its offerings to include liberal arts, college preparatory courses and medical, law, business, music, and theological departments. Additionally, the school was the home to competitive football, basketball, and baseball teams. Simmons University continued to grow and prosper until the Great Depression destroyed the economic underpinnings of the school. In 1930, unable to sustain its mortgage, the school had to sell its campus. As a result, the school significantly reduced its offerings.

By 1935 a new location was secured at 1811 Dumesnil Street in West Louisville. This allowed the school to continue with a narrowed mission of educating young men and women for Christian service. In 1982 the school was renamed Simmons Bible College. In 2007, after 77 years of exile, Simmons College of Kentucky returned to its original 8th and Kentucky campus. Today, under the leadership of its 13th president, Dr. Kevin W. Cosby, Simmons College of Kentucky continues in its mission to prepare people for Christian ministry, while reinstating its initial mission of general liberal arts education.
With a curriculum designed to promote healthy ministries and community service, the school is poised to become the nation’s leading authority on matters regarding church growth in the urban community.

MISSION STATEMENT

Simmons College of Kentucky is an institution of biblical higher education dedicated to educating people in the urban context through strong academic and professional programs in order that they may become productive citizens and agents of change in society.

The College offers a rigorous curriculum, administered in an environment of academic freedom with its corollary obligations, that prepares graduates for work, professional or graduate studies, and viable careers in particular fields. The faculty at the College is dedicated to excellence in teaching, advising, scholarship, and service. Additionally, the college promotes an intellectually challenging atmosphere that stimulates and supports the growth of one's spiritual, ethical, and moral character as well as their appreciation of the arts, their global awareness, and their concern for the welfare of the community in which they live. The accomplishment of these overarching objectives will be evidenced by the student’s skill in various kinds of communication and critical/analytical thinking, as well as their assurance and comfort with technology.

VISION STATEMENT

To be the premier Christian liberal arts institution of higher education in the region, known for the integration of faith and learning, whose graduates lead purposeful lives as productive citizens.

CORE VALUES

ACCESS AND QUALITY

Simmons will provide equal education opportunities to increasing numbers of students from underserved and unserved populations residing primarily among the economically and socially bypassed in the Metro Louisville community.

LEADERSHIP

Simmons will stimulate, initiate, and implement programs and services to inspire and guide its students, faculty, and staff in developing their self-confidence, self-discipline, and self-empowerment to become productive leaders.

RELEVANCE
Simmons will respond to the evolving needs of the economic and political culture—highly literate, well-spoken, technologically competent graduates educated to excel in the 21st century workforce.

DIVERSITY
Simmons will sustain and strengthen its commitment to recruit, enroll, educate, and graduate students and to employ faculty and staff that represent a diverse cross-section of the community.

SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY
Simmons will promote active participation in constructive social exchange through volunteerism, leadership, and civic action on the part of its students, faculty, and staff.

HERITAGE
Simmons will honor its heritage as a historically black college and university ("HBCU") and will provide all students with a safe space in which to explore and express their history and culture, as they respect themselves and others.

SIMMONS ALMA MATER *

Fair Simmons, Our Alma Ma-ter, thy his-t'ry bids us hope
That the fu-ture that's before may of-fer wid-er scope.
For deeds be-yond at-tain-ment Than an-y in the past,
God will-ing we'll ac-comp-lish a-chieve-ments that will Last.
Our lives thou hast in-fluenced
Our char-acter thou doth Mold;
We'll fling’ a-loft our banner, high, The Crimson and the Gold.
Long’ may thou lie and pros-per
In the work thou has be-gun,
Thy Sons and Daug-h-ters wish thee well,
May low descending sun.

ENROLLMENT MANAGEMENT
Enrollment Management and Student Access at SCKY form a comprehensive system dedicated to facilitating students' seamless transition into college life, fostering academic success, and nurturing a supportive learning community. This holistic approach encompasses crucial components such as Undergraduate Recruitment Admissions, Regional Recruitment and Admissions, Graduate Recruitment and Admissions, Financial Aid, Bursar Services, Dual Enrollment and Scholarships. These offices are conveniently located on the second floor of Steward Hall, serving as central hubs for student support services.

Mission:
The mission of the SCKY Division of Enrollment Management and Student Access is to foster a diverse and inclusive learning community by providing accessible and transformative educational opportunities. We are committed to identifying, recruiting, and supporting talented individuals from all walks of life, empowering them to pursue their educational aspirations and become future leaders who positively impact society.

Vision:
Our vision is to be a driving force in breaking down barriers to higher education, ensuring that no talented individual is denied access to quality learning due to financial, social, or geographical constraints. Through innovative recruitment strategies, personalized support, and community partnerships, we aspire to attract a diverse and dynamic student body that reflects the rich tapestry of the global community.

We envision a campus where all students, regardless of their backgrounds, are welcomed with open arms and nurtured to thrive academically, socially, and emotionally. Our commitment to social justice and empowerment will be evident in every aspect of our work, inspiring our students to become change agents who challenge systemic injustices and contribute positively to a just and equitable world.

Through our relentless pursuit of excellence, innovation, and student success, the Division of Enrollment Management and Student Access at SCKY will continually uphold the college’s legacy and remain at the forefront of higher education institutions that prioritize access, diversity, and transformative learning experiences.

1. Undergraduate Recruitment and Admissions: SCKY’s Undergraduate Recruitment and Admissions department actively engages prospective students through tailored outreach programs, campus tours, and informative events. These efforts ensure that potential undergraduates gain valuable insights into the university’s culture and offerings. The department’s equitable admission process allows deserving students to embark on their academic journey at SCKY.

2. Regional Recruitment and Admissions: SCKY’s Regional Recruitment and Admissions team focuses on fostering diversity by engaging students from various geographical areas. Through partnerships with schools and community organizations, this office extends the university’s reach, making higher education accessible to individuals from diverse locations.

3. Graduate Recruitment and Admissions: SCKY’s Graduate Recruitment and Admissions process attracts ambitious individuals seeking advanced education and research opportunities. Rigorous selection criteria ensure that graduate programs are populated with dedicated scholars and researchers, contributing to SCKY’s intellectual community.

4. Financial Aid: SCKY’s Financial Aid office, located on the second floor of Steward Hall, plays a vital role in making higher education affordable. By offering scholarships, grants, and loans, this office supports qualified students, allowing them to pursue their studies without undue financial burden.

5. Bursar Services: The Bursar’s office, conveniently located on the second floor of Steward Hall, manages students’ financial obligations, ensuring transparent and efficient transactions related to tuition payments and fees.

6. Scholarships: SCKY’s scholarship programs, administered from the second floor of Steward Hall, acknowledge and reward academic achievements, leadership, and community involvement. These scholarships inspire excellence and ambition within the student body, fostering a culture of continuous learning and achievement.

7. Dual Enrollment: SCKY’s Dual Enrollment program provides high school students with the opportunity to enroll in college-level courses, earning both high school and college credits simultaneously. This initiative allows motivated students to get a head start on their higher education journey, experiencing the rigors of university-level academics while still in high school. The Dual Enrollment program, overseen from the second floor of Steward Hall, bridges the gap between secondary and tertiary education, empowering students to explore their academic interests and aspirations.

ADMISSIONS POLICY

Simmons College of Kentucky accepts applications from anyone who meets the academic and character requirements necessary for success as a student. Any student admitted to the College is entitled to all the rights, privileges, programs, and activities generally accorded to or made available to students at the College. Simmons College of Kentucky does not discriminate based on race, color, national or ethnic origin, age, sexual orientation, gender identity, or disability, in the administration of its educational policies or other school-administered programs.

GENERAL ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Students applying for admission to Simmons College of Kentucky with the intent of pursuing a certificate or degree must meet the following qualifications:

- A completed application for admission. This can be completed online or by paper application.
- Payment of the $25 application fee.
- An official high school or GED transcript.
- Official prior college transcripts if you previously attended other schools—even if you withdrew.
- An autobiographical essay explaining how your unique qualities and faith journey will contribute to a Christian HBCU.
- At least one letter of recommendation from someone who can attest to your character, academic maturity, and preparation for the Simmons College of Kentucky. The person cannot be a family member or friend.
- Official ACT or SAT test score results. (If you have not taken the ACT before you apply, you must register to do so, and scores must be sent to Simmons College of Kentucky).

PROVISIONAL ADMITTANCE POLICY

Applicants not meeting the minimum academic requirements for regular admission may be provisionally admitted. Provisionally accepted students are those students who have a high school GPA below 2.0. Students admitted provisionally must attain a minimum overall GPA of 2.0 by the end of their second semester enrolled at the college, with at least 24 credit hours of coursework attempted.

Further requirements to satisfy provisional admittance:
• 1-hour weekly study-hall attendance
• A minimum of 5 completed Student Academic Success Workshops
• Satisfy 5 Weekly Advisor Check-Ins

PLAN SPECIFIC ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

CERTIFICATE PROGRAMS:
From time to time, the college may develop and offer certificate programs where a specialized course of study is desired. Requirements for these programs will be established at the time of their offering, and admissions packets made available. Certificate coursework not required in a program’s plan of study does not count toward that program’s degree.

ASSOCIATE DEGREE AND BACHELOR DEGREE:
Any person desiring to enter the Associate of Arts (AA), Associate of Applied Science (AAS), Bachelor of Arts (BA) or Bachelor of Science (BS) programs must meet all General Admission requirements as listed above and submit a signed verification and agreement to abide by the policies and codes of conduct of Simmons College of Kentucky.

GRADUATE DEGREE
To be considered for admission into the graduate program at Simmons College of Kentucky, an applicant must meet the following requirements:

• Complete a 4-year baccalaureate degree program at an accredited institution.
• Official transcripts from all colleges or universities you’ve attended.
• Undergraduate GPA of 2.75 on a 4.0 scale in the following courses:
  o Biology w/ laboratory - 8 credits
  o Chemistry w/ laboratory - 8 credits
  o Organic Chemistry w/ laboratory - 8 credits o Physics w/ laboratory - 8 credits
  o Mathematics - 6 credits
  o Behavior and Social Sciences - 6 credits
  o English - 6 credits
• MCAT scores recommended but not required.
• 1-page personal statement regarding interest in medicine and service to the underserved.
• 2 letters of recommendation
  o one letter must come from one of your undergraduate or graduate professors.
• Interview
NOTE: Any exception to the above stated admission policies must be approved by the Office of the Vice President of Academic Affairs. A formal request for an exception must be made in writing and presented to the Office of Admissions.

READMISSION POLICY
Up to 24 months after withdrawing from school, a person may return to classes without applying for readmission through the Admissions Office. After 24 months of not being enrolled at Simmons College of Kentucky, a person must apply for readmission through the Admissions Office. An exception may be made through the Vice President for Student Affairs only in case of a documented medical leave of absence. Application forms may be obtained from the Admissions Office or online. If an individual has attended another college or university since leaving Simmons College of Kentucky, they must provide an official transcript from that college or university and are required to complete the application process again.

TRANSFER STUDENTS
Any admitted student having transferred credit from some other institutions of higher education must complete at least forty-five (45) hours of course work at Simmons College of Kentucky in order to be eligible for a degree. In addition, twenty-one (21) of the last thirty (30) hours of study must be completed at Simmons College of Kentucky. Only coursework comparable to courses offered at Simmons College of Kentucky in the Associate of Arts, Associate of Applied Science, Bachelor of Arts, or Bachelor of Science programs will be considered for transfer.

Students are required to submit an official transcript for all work passed or failed at any other college or university prior to enrolling at Simmons. It is considered a form of academic dishonesty not to declare these enrollments. The student who applies for admission, readmission or reinstatement to Simmons is responsible for having each institution send an official transcript directly to the Office of Admission.

After entry to the college, transcripts are sent directly to the Office of the Registrar. All college-level coursework completed with a grade of C or better at an accredited institution of higher education and oriented toward a baccalaureate degree, including dual credit earned while in high school, will be accepted for credit at Simmons College of Kentucky provided that Simmons offers a comparable course in our catalog. Credit will be granted only once for equivalent courses. School staff or designated committee chairs, in their sole discretion, determine which transfer credit will count toward liberal arts requirements.
The Vice President of Academic Affairs will evaluate credit that may apply toward a major or minor upon submission of appropriate descriptive information. Courses accepted will be included in the cumulative credit hours earned but neither grades nor grade points earned at other institutions will be used in the computation of the Simmons College grade point average. All credit over 20 years old and credit earned at institutions that have non-regional accreditation will be considered for transfer, but only on a course-by-course basis, as approved by the Vice President for Academic Affairs. Transfer credit is incorporated into the academic record either as elective credit or to count toward specific degree requirements.

TRANSFER CREDIT POLICY FOR COURSEWORK
All college-level coursework completed with a “C” grade or better at an accredited institution of higher education and oriented toward a baccalaureate degree will be accepted for credit at Simmons College provided that Simmons offers a comparable course in our catalog. However, not all courses transferred will fulfill specific requirements for a particular degree. Courses accepted will be included in the cumulative hours earned but neither grades nor grade points earned at other institutions will be used in the computation of the Simmons College grade point average. When a transfer student has earned credit at a non-regionally accredited institution, the credit will be transferred only if approved by the Vice-President for Academic Affairs in consultation with appropriate instructors and other officers.

The Vice President for Academic Affairs will evaluate credit that may apply toward general degree requirements. When appropriate, Liberal Arts codes will be assigned to transfer credit.

Credit from a foreign institution of higher education will be evaluated on a case-by-case basis. It may be in the best interest of the student to have the transcript evaluated by an agency that specializes in foreign academic credentials. In some cases, it will be appropriate to transfer up to 30 semester hours of unspecified credit, without grade points. When Liberal Arts courses can be identified, they will be transferred as such.

Credit earned through military or non-traditional programs, that have been evaluated by the American Council on Education (ACE) and declared to be the equivalent of lower or upper division credit, will be transferred according to the ACE recommendations.

CREDIT BY EXAMINATION OR EXPERIENCE
Advanced Placement Program – College Board (APP). Students who participate in high school in the Advanced Placement Program (APP) may have score reports sent to the registrar for evaluation. Credit will be awarded for APP scores of 3, 4 and 5. Credit gained through APP will advance the degree program, and when appropriate, may meet liberal arts requirements or count toward a major or minor. APP credit will not affect the grade point average.

College Level Examination Program – College Board (CLEP). Students who participate in the College Level Examination Program (CLEP), conducted by the College Board may have score reports sent to the registrar for evaluation. Credit will be awarded for scores at or above the 50th percentile. Credit gained through APP will advance the degree program, and when appropriate, may meet liberal arts requirements or count toward a major or minor. CLEP credit will not affect the grade point average.

American College Testing (ACT) Proficiency Examinations (PEP). Score reports are evaluated against guidelines published by ACT before the registrar awards credit. When appropriate, Liberal Arts codes will be assigned. PEP credit will not affect the grade point average.

International Baccalaureate Program. Students who participate in the International Baccalaureate (IB) program and score 4 or better on higher-level IB examinations will be granted credit that advances their degree program at Simmons College. IB credit will not affect the grade point average.

Prior Life Learning. Students must be enrolled in Executive Leadership Program and take the ELA 201 and ELA 440 courses in order to receive credit for Prior Life Learning. Students can earn up to 18 credit hours.

SCHOLARSHIP POLICY
The purpose of the Scholarship Policy at SCKY is to recognize and reward academic excellence, leadership, and community involvement among our student body. This policy outlines the criteria, application process, and disbursement guidelines for scholarships provided by the university.

1. Eligibility: Scholarships at SCKY are available to both incoming and current students who demonstrate outstanding academic achievements, leadership qualities, and active participation in community service. Eligibility criteria may vary based on specific scholarship programs, and applicants must meet the requirements outlined in the respective scholarship descriptions.

2. Application Process: To be considered for scholarships, students must submit a scholarship application form, along with any required documentation, by the specified deadline. The application form will be available online through the university's official portal. Incomplete or late applications will not be considered.

3. Selection Criteria: Scholarship recipients will be selected based on a combination of academic merit, extracurricular involvement, leadership skills, and demonstrated community service. Each scholarship program may have specific criteria, and selection committees comprised of university faculty and staff will evaluate applicants based on these criteria.

4. Award Disbursement: Scholarships will be disbursed at the beginning of each academic term. Recipients must maintain the required GPA and fulfill any other obligations specified in the scholarship agreement to receive the scholarship for subsequent terms. The scholarship amount will be credited directly to the recipient's university account to cover tuition and related expenses.

5. Renewal and Termination: Scholarships may be renewable for multiple terms or for the duration of the student's program, provided the recipient maintains the specified GPA and continues to meet the scholarship requirements. Failure to meet the academic or conduct standards outlined in the university's policies may result in the termination of the scholarship.

6. Transparency and Communication: SCKY is committed to transparency in the scholarship awarding process. Detailed information about available scholarships, including eligibility criteria, application deadlines, and selection procedures, will be made available on the university's official website. Additionally, applicants will be notified of the scholarship decisions in a timely manner.

7. Appeals Process: Applicants who are not selected for a scholarship may appeal the decision by submitting a written appeal to the Scholarship Committee within 10 days of the notification date. The committee will review the appeal and communicate the final decision to the applicant.

8. Policy Review: This scholarship policy will be reviewed annually to ensure its effectiveness and relevance. Any necessary revisions will be made to reflect changing needs and circumstances while upholding the university's commitment to recognizing and supporting student achievements.

DUAL ENROLLEMENT POLICY

The Dual Enrollment program at SCKY aims to provide motivated high school students with the opportunity to enroll in college-level courses while completing their secondary education. This policy outlines the guidelines, procedures, and expectations for participation in the Dual Enrollment program at SCKY.

Eligibility

1. High School Enrollment: Students must be enrolled in a recognized high school and be in good academic standing.
2. Academic Requirements: Dual Enrollment candidates must meet the academic prerequisites and any specific course requirements outlined by SCKY for the desired courses.

3. Approval: Participation in the Dual Enrollment program is subject to approval by both the student's high school counselor and the SCKY Admissions Committee.

Application Process
1. Application Submission: Prospective Dual Enrollment students must complete the official SCKY Dual Enrollment application form, including necessary academic transcripts and recommendation letters.
2. Review and Approval: The SCKY Admissions Committee will review applications and notify students of their acceptance status.

Course Enrollment
1. Course Selection: Dual Enrollment students may enroll in courses based on their eligibility and available spaces in the selected classes.
2. Academic Advising: Dual Enrollment students will be assigned an academic advisor at SCKY, who will assist them in selecting appropriate courses and navigating the college experience.

Responsibilities
1. Academic Performance: Dual Enrollment students are expected to maintain satisfactory academic progress in their enrolled courses. Failure to do so may result in dismissal from the program.
2. Behavioral Expectations: Dual Enrollment students are required to adhere to SCKY's code of conduct and behavioral expectations while on campus.
3. High School Requirements: Dual Enrollment students must ensure that their participation in college courses does not interfere with their high school commitments and requirements.

Credits and Transcripts
1. Earned Credits: Dual Enrollment students who successfully complete courses will earn college credits that may be transferable to other institutions.
2. Transcripts: Upon course completion, official transcripts will be provided to the students, which can be used for college applications or future academic endeavors.

Tuition Waiver
SCKY may offer a partial or full waiver of tuition and fees for Dual Enrollment students based on eligibility criteria in addition to the state waiver.
Program Evaluation and Review
The Dual Enrollment program at SCKY will be regularly evaluated to ensure its effectiveness and alignment with the university's educational objectives. Any necessary revisions to the program will be made to enhance the overall experience for participating students.

TRANSIENT STUDENT POLICY
A transient student is a degree-seeking student completing college classes for credit at one university and taking courses temporarily at another institution.

Beginning July 1, 2023, any student enrolled at Simmons College of Kentucky (SCKY) who desires to enroll in a course at another institution must complete the Transient Student Permission Form to receive approval from the registrar's office. The purpose of this is to determine how courses at other institutions will transfer to SCKY prior to enrolling in those courses. Courses that are equivalent to courses offered at SCKY will transfer if the transient institution is regionally or nationally accredited. Credits from non-degree granting institutions, vocational or technical institutes will not be accepted.

FINANCIAL AID
The Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) can be completed on or after October 1st each year at www.fafsa.gov. The school code to use when applying for federal aid to attend Simmons College of Kentucky is 041780. The FAFSA must be completed EVERY Academic YEAR for which a student wants to be considered for financial aid.

Federal Pell Grant
This grant is awarded to eligible students who are working on their associate’s or first bachelor’s degree. The amount of this grant is determined by the payment chart published by the U. S. Department of Education according to your official expected family contribution (EFC) calculated from your FAFSA information. The EFC must be between 0 and 5846. The maximum Federal Pell Grant for the 2022-2023 year is $6,895. We award this grant assuming full-time (12 credit hours or more) attendance. If not enrolled as a full-time student, the grant will be adjusted according to the payment chart.

Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant (SEOG)
This grant is awarded to undergraduate students with exceptional financial need. Federal Pell Grant recipients, early FAFSA submission, grade point average, gap funding and degree-completion are given priority. Summer SEOG is determined by availability of funds.

Federal Work-Study
Eligibility: Students who have need and are US citizens or eligible non-citizens enrolled in an eligible school pursuing a degree or certificate.
Award: Students must be paid at least the current federal minimum wage. Maximum earnings cannot exceed the total cost of education minus other financial aid received.
Application: FAFSA

Kentucky College Access Program (CAP) Grant
CAP Grants help Kentucky’s financially needy undergraduate students attend eligible public and private colleges and universities, proprietary schools, and technical colleges.
Students must be a Kentucky resident, have financial need, attend an eligible college, have no past due financial obligations to KHEAA or to any Title IV program, be enrolled at least half-time in a program at least two years in length.
Award: Up to $5300 per year.
Application: FAFSA, which should be completed as soon as possible after October 1st. Funds are awarded on a first-come, first-served basis.
Kentucky Tuition Grant (KTG)
KTG Grant helps Kentucky financially needy undergraduate students enrolled full time at an eligible private college. Must be a US citizen.
Award: Up to $3200 per year.
Application: FAFSA, which should be completed as soon as possible after October 1st.

Iraq and Afghanistan Service Grant
This Grant is for Students who are not Pell-eligible; whose parent or guardian died as a result of military service in Iraq or Afghanistan after September 11, 2001; and who, at the time of parent’s or guardian’s death, were less than 24 years old or were enrolled at least part time at an institution of higher education.
Award: Varies

Kentucky Educational Excellence Scholarship (KEES)
The KEES program provides scholarships to students who earn at least a 2.5 GPA each year they attend a certified Kentucky high school. To find out if you have any KEES please visit www.kheaa.com (You will have to create an account).
(Religious Studies programs are not eligible).

Students must continually meet all eligibility requirements in accordance with federal and state regulations. Students are strongly encouraged to review the Student Financial Aid Consumer Information Guide and Student Handbook for detailed information regarding policies, rights and responsibilities. Most awards listed on the award notification letter are based upon full-time enrollment (12 credit hours or more) eligibility. Awards may be adjusted to match eligibility based on enrollment level after the Pell Recalculation date of each semester if not attending full-time.

If a student drops a class before that session begins, the financial aid will be adjusted accordingly. Dropping below half-time (6 credit hours) may result in cancellation of some aid awards. It is strongly recommended that if dropping classes with the intention to add others, that the student drops and adds classes on the same day. If awarded the Pell Grant, it cannot be increased for class(es) added after the Pell Recalculation date. The student will be responsible for repaying any funds if determined not eligible to receive as a result of a change in enrolled hours or in financial aid data.

If a student is receiving educational assistance from another source, this information must be reported to our Financial Aid office. A student may report the source(s) and amounts by contacting the Financial Aid office to directly report other educational assistance as soon as possible.

If the Financial Aid office makes any changes to financial aid eligibility, a revised aid notice will be sent via U.S. Postal mail.

Applying for Financial Aid is an annual process. Please re-apply by completing the new-year FAFSA on or after October 1st of each year.

Kentucky National Guard Tuition Award

Eligibility: Active member of Kentucky National Guard. Members must maintain all minimum standards, be eligible for all positive personnel actions and have completed basic training or its equivalent.

Award: Up to or equal to the in-state tuition at any Kentucky University, college or technical school based on availability of funds.

National Service Award: Segal Americorps Education Award

Eligibility: US citizens or permanent resident aliens aged 18 or older who perform national community service before, during or after college.

Award: Up to $6495 for each year of service (up to two awards) to pay current or future educational expenses or repay federal student loans. If the member is 55 years or older, the award can be transferred to a child or grandchild. It must be used within seven years.

Application: Contact Kentucky’s AmeriCorps Office at Ky@cns.gov; call 202-815-4950 or toll free 800-942-2677; or apply online at https://americorps.gov/members-volunteers/segal-americops-education-award.

Loans Federal Direct Loan Program

Eligibility: US citizens or eligible noncitizens enrolled at least half time (6 credit hours) in an eligible degree program at an eligible school. You must show financial need for a subsidized loan but not for an unsubsidized loan.

Award: The loan amount for an academic year cannot exceed the cost of attendance (as determined by the financial aid office) minus your estimated financial assistance and, if the loan is subsidized, EFC. The amount can’t exceed the loan limit for an academic year based on your dependency status and grade level. The interest rate on Direct Loans is set each year. Undergraduate students may be eligible for both subsidized and unsubsidized loans. The federal government pays the interest on a subsidized loan until you begin repayment. You can pay the interest on an unsubsidized loan while you are in school or have it added to the principal of the loan.

Application: FAFSA - www.fafsa.gov and the Federal Direct Loan Master Promissory Note (MPN) - www.studentloans.gov.
RETURN OF FINANCIAL AID POLICY
If a student withdraws from Simmons College of Kentucky, the school, the student, or both, may be required to return some or all federal funds awarded to the student for that semester. A student who withdraws from all classes prior to completing 60% of the enrollment term is subject to having his/her eligibility adjusted based on the percentage of the term completed. (For example, a student withdraws from all classes after completing only 20% of the term. Therefore, the student only earned 20% of aid disbursed or received on his/her account. This results in the school or student having to return 80% of the disbursed/received aid that was not earned.)

Please refer to the Financial Aid Consumer Information Guide and Student Handbook to learn what effect earning all “F” grades or unofficial withdrawal has on a student’s financial aid account and future eligibility. Please remember all financial aid recipients will be held accountable under the school’s Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) policy; for SAP Policy see Simmons College of Kentucky Consumer Information Guide.

PAYMENT PLAN
For students who are unable to pay the total cost of registration and tuition at the time of registration, the following payment plan is available. A student may pay one-third of the total fees and divide the remaining charges in three equal payments with installments being due and payable on or before the fifth (5th) of each succeeding month. All student accounts must be kept current and in good standing before students will be allowed to register for next semester's classes, receive final grades, or receive an official transcript. In its discretion, the college may establish other deferred payment plans as are appropriate under individual circumstances.

FINANCIAL PENALTIES
Students whose accounts are not paid by the established semester deadlines may be subject to financial penalties. Students with unpaid account balances will be placed on Financial Hold by the Registrar’s Office. Students placed on Financial Hold become ineligible for further registration and transcripts will not be released until the student account is paid in full. A late payment fee of $50.00 may be assessed when student accounts are not paid by the last day to drop/add for the semester. A return payment of $25.00 may be assessed when payment is not honored by the bank on which it was drawn. If restitution is not made within 10 days of notification, the student may be subject to financial penalties and/or legal action. Debtors who do not make satisfactory payment arrangements on their past due accounts may have their accounts placed with a billing service. If not paid through the billing service, the unpaid account may be forwarded to a collection agency. It is the policy of the College that unpaid accounts will be assessed the costs and expenses of collection, including attorney fees.

CANCELLATION REFUND POLICY
Rejection: An applicant rejected by the college is entitled to a refund of all monies paid, excluding the initial application fee.

Three-Day Cancellation: An applicant who provides written notice of cancellation within three (3) business days, excluding weekends and holidays, of executing the enrollment agreement is entitled to a refund of all monies paid, excluding non-refundable fees.

Other Cancellations: An application requesting cancellation more than three (3) days after executing the enrollment agreement and making an initial payment, but prior to the first day of class is entitled to a refund of all monies paid, less a maximum tuition fee of 15% of the stated cost of the course or $75, whichever is less. Admission application fees are non-refundable, however.

VETERANS REFUND POLICY
Any person receiving educational assistance from the Veterans Administration (VA) shall be entitled to a pro-rated refund of any charges and/or fees in accordance with statutory requirements that exist at the time being reported. The refund shall equal the prorated cost of the incomplete course. (Students receiving VA entitlements should contact their VA representative for further financial assistance.)

STUDENTS IN ARREARS
Students in financial arrears, either to the college, bookstore or to the library, will not be permitted to register for the subsequent term or receive transcripts, grades, or diplomas until satisfactory arrangements have been made to pay the outstanding financial obligation.

CODE OF CONDUCT
Students who enter the Simmons College of Kentucky community of scholarship are expected to maintain a high standard of ethical conduct compatible with biblical principles. Bearing in mind that the actions of a few can damage the hard-earned positive reputation of the many, we covenant to honor both our HBCU heritage and our Simmons Nation pride by respectfully upholding this code of conduct. Student use of intoxicating beverages or controlled substances on school premises will not be tolerated (exceptions only for legitimately prescribed medications). Public displays of drunkenness, use of prohibited substances, underage drinking, public disorderly conduct, public intoxication, or criminal conduct on or off campus will not be tolerated. The evidence of such or other infractions may lead to immediate expulsion.

A high standard of ethics is meant to pervade all segments of the life of this institution of higher learning for both its students and faculty, as we interact with each other in person and online. To this end, we expect all to be just in their dealings with others, the college, and the employees of the college. This includes, but is not limited to, honesty and integrity in study, courtesy in speech, the satisfying of all obligations to the College, financial and/or otherwise. Students who fail to conduct themselves in a high manner will be recommended to the Office of Student Affairs for counseling or disciplinary action. Repeated displays of poor conduct will result in expulsion from the College.

DRESS CODE
Simmons College of Kentucky does not specify a particular type, style or form of clothing, as long as the manner of dress is modest and reflects a moral character. Students are expected to dress appropriately for special events such as convocation services, banquets, graduation, career days, and the like. Students who lack resources to acquire appropriate clothing should contact the office of the Vice-president for Student Affairs, which will work with college leadership to help ameliorate the situation.
ACADEMIC AFFAIRS
MISSION STATEMENT

The Mission of Academic Affairs at Simmons College of Kentucky is to produce ardent graduates from diverse backgrounds with the integrity and intellect required for apposite contributions to society. The Vision of Academic Affairs is to provide an educational experience of exceptional quality for undergraduate students through transformational approaches to student learning.

CENTERS OF EXCELLENCE AT SIMMONS COLLEGE OF KENTUCKY

Digital Teaching and Learning Center (DTAL)
Multi-scaled center for innovation, design, research, and information technology support. DTAL launches Simmons into the world of technologically supported teaching and learning. The Center is designed to provide support for all current and forthcoming programs under the auspices of Academic Affairs.

The Falcons Academic Center of Excellence
The Falcons Academic Center of Excellence (FACE) engages in removing barriers to student success by providing services central to academic advising, and persistence and retention strategies. FACE positions itself to engage in a paradigm shift encompassing a comprehensive model which includes removing barriers, focusing on achievement, and guiding students toward academic excellence.

Advising services in the FACE Center is provided to all admitted students of the College, but primarily target students classified as freshman, sophomores, and transfer students. Students are assigned a FACE academic advisor who assists them throughout the completion of their general education requirements.

The Reverend Jesse Louis Jackson, Sr. Center for Racial Justice
The Reverend Jesse Louis Jackson, Sr. Center for Racial Justice advocates for learning, collaboration, and systemic change to address historic and ongoing forms of racial injustice nationally.
Math Learning Center (MLC)
The mission of the Math Learning Center is to provide creative and specialized learning support to Simmons students as they progress toward math proficiency and become self-reliant as they gain confidence in their ability to do mathematics, which in turn will directly affect student persistence, retention, and graduation rates.

Writing Center
The Simmons College Writing Center assists students in improving their writing skills and plays an integral role in meeting students' writing and literacy needs as they discover their voice through writing.

Second Chance Pell Initiative
Simmons College of Kentucky has partnered with the Kentucky Department of Corrections to offer educational opportunities for incarcerated students who have earned a high school diploma or GED and are eligible for federal financial aid, the Pell grant. Also, participants of the program must be eligible for parole within five years of enrolling in the program. Participants must submit official high school and/or collegiate transcripts. The purpose of the program is to offer associate and bachelor's degrees to justice-involved people currently housed at one of the participating locations in the Commonwealth of Kentucky. Qualified and admitted students can earn degrees in General Studies, Business Entrepreneurship, and Sociology. Course delivery will be implemented through face-to-face instruction (30%) and smart technology (70%).

Distance and Online learning
The College offers students the opportunity to earn college credit through two (2) types of online courses: Asynchronous or Synchronous. Online Synchronous is very similar to the face-to-face courses and will meet at a specific time during the semester, but the meetings are virtual. “Virtual” or “Remote Learning” can be via Zoom, BigBlueButton, Google Meets, or other online video communication systems. Lastly, Online Asynchronous will be 100% online, and participants will not have a scheduled meeting time. Essentially, students do not have to show up to class at a specific time but must make sure they complete their activities and assignments by their respective due dates. Both types of online courses provide students with flexibility and convenience. Some online courses allow for real-time interaction through chats or the virtual classroom. Online courses require the same prerequisites, admissions, and registration procedures as on-campus courses. Online courses have the same learning objectives as those taught in a traditional format. Distance Learning students have access to the same services as on-campus students, including online or walk-in counseling and advising sessions, and access to library databases and other resources. Orientation is available in each online course to help students learn more about distance learning.

ACADEMIC CALENDAR

The Academic Calendar is the schedule of events that occur within the academic year. The college’s academic calendar is made available on the college’s website at www.simmonscollegeky.edu.

POLICIES GOVERNING USE OF TECHNOLOGY

OVERVIEW

Simmons’ intentions for publishing an Acceptable Use Policy are not to impose restrictions that are contrary to the established culture of openness, trust and integrity, but to protect employees, students, partners and the college from illegal or damaging actions by individuals, either knowingly or unknowingly. Internet/Intranet/Extranet-related systems, including but not limited to computer equipment, software, operating systems, storage media, network accounts providing electronic mail, WWW browsing, and FTP, are the property of Simmons College. These systems are to be used for business purposes in service the interests of the school, and of our students in the course of normal operations. Please review Human Resources policies for further details.

Effective security is a team effort involving the participation and support of every Simmons College employee, student, and affiliate who deals with information and/or information systems. It is the responsibility of every computer user to know these guidelines, and to conduct their activities accordingly.

PURPOSE

The purpose of this policy is to outline the acceptable use of computer equipment at Simmons College. These rules are in place to protect the employees and Simmons College. Inappropriate use exposes Simmons College to risks including virus attacks, compromise of network systems and services, and legal issues.

SCOPE

This policy applies to students, employees, contractors, consultants, temporary workers, volunteers, and other workers at Simmons College, including all personnel affiliated with third parties. This policy applies to all equipment that is owned or leased by Simmons College.
GENERAL USE AND OWNERSHIP

While Simmons College’s network administration desires to provide a reasonable level of privacy, users should be aware that the data they create on the college systems remain the property of Simmons College and are subject to review and inspection. Because of the need to protect Simmons College, management cannot guarantee the confidentiality of information stored on any network device belonging to Simmons College.

Because all communications on Simmons College’s networks remain the property of the college, all employees and students should be aware that there is no guarantee of privacy in the use of Simmons electronic networks. If students, employees, or other individuals choose to make occasional personal use of Simmons’ network, those communications are subject to review. Simmons College reserves the right to audit networks, systems, and communications on a periodic basis to ensure compliance with this policy.

Employees are responsible for exercising good judgment regarding the reasonableness of personal use. Individual departments are responsible for creating guidelines concerning personal use of the Internet/Intranet/Extranet systems. In the absence of such policies, employees should be guided by departmental policies on personal use, and if there is any uncertainty, employees should consult their supervisor or manager.

Simmons recommends that any information that users consider sensitive or vulnerable be encrypted. For security and network maintenance purposes, authorized individuals within Simmons College may monitor equipment, systems and network traffic at any time, per Simmons’s Audit Policy as it now exists or may be amended.

SECURITY AND PROPRIETARY INFORMATION

The user interface for information contained on Internet/Intranet/Extranet-related systems should be classified as either confidential or not confidential, as defined by corporate confidentiality guidelines, details of which can be found in Human Resources policies. Examples of confidential information include but are not limited to: company private, corporate strategies, competitor sensitive, trade secrets, specifications, customer lists, and research data. Employees should take all necessary steps to prevent unauthorized access to this information.

Keep passwords secure and do not share accounts. Authorized users are responsible for the security of their passwords and accounts. System level passwords should be changed quarterly; user level passwords should be changed every six months. All PCs, laptops and workstations should be secured with a password-protected screensaver with automatic activation feature set at 10 minutes or less, or by logging-off (control-alt-delete for Win2K users) when the host will be unattended. Use encryption of information in compliance with Simmons’s Acceptable Encryption Use policy. Because information contained on portable computers is especially vulnerable, special care should be exercised. Protect laptops in accordance with the “Laptop Security Tips”. Postings by employees from a Simmons College email address to newsgroups should contain a disclaimer stating that the opinions expressed are strictly their own and not necessarily those of Simmons College, unless posting is in the course of business duties.

All hosts used by the employee that are connected to Simmons College Internet/Intranet/Extranet, whether owned by the employee or Simmons College, shall be continually executing approved virus- scanning software with a current virus database unless overridden by departmental or group policy. Employees must use extreme caution when opening e-mail attachments received from unknown senders, which may contain viruses, e-mail bombs, or Trojan horse code.

STUDENT EMAILS
Upon registration and continuing enrollment, students will be assigned a college email. Be sure to change your password as soon as you get your email so that information sent to you remains private. DO NOT GIVE OTHERS YOUR PASSWORD unless you have authorized that person to act on your behalf.

UNACCEPTABLE USE
The following activities are, in general, prohibited. Employees may be exempted from these restrictions during the course of their legitimate job responsibilities (e.g., systems administration staff may have a need to disable the network access of a host if that host is disrupting production services). Under no circumstances is an employee of Simmons College authorized to engage in any activity that is illegal under local, state, federal or international law while utilizing Simmons College-owned resources. The lists below are by no means exhaustive, but attempt to provide a framework for activities, which fall into the category of unacceptable use.

PROHIBITED SYSTEM AND NETWORK ACTIVITIES
The following activities are strictly prohibited, with no exceptions:

Violations of the rights of any person or company protected by copyright, trade secret, patent or other intellectual property, or similar laws or regulations, including, but not limited to, the installation or distribution of “pirated” or othersoftware products that are not appropriately licensed for use by Simmons College.

Unauthorized copying of copyrighted material including, but not limited to, digitization and distribution of photographs from magazines, books or other copyrighted sources, copyrighted music, and the installation of any copyrighted software for with Simmons College or the end user does not have an active license is strictly prohibited.

Exploring software, technical information, encryption software or technology, in violation of international or regional export control laws, is illegal. The appropriate management should be consulted prior to export of any material that is in question.

Introduction of malicious programs into the network or server (e.g., viruses, worms, Trojan horses, e-mail bombs, etc.). Revealing your account password to others or allowing use of your account by others. This includes family and other household members when work is being done at home.

Using a Simmons College computing asset to actively engage in procuring or transmitting material that is in violation of sexual harassment or hostile workplace laws in the user’s local jurisdiction.

Making fraudulent offers of products, items, or services originating from a Simmons College account.

Making statements about warranty, expressly or implied, unless it is a part of normal job duties.

Effecting or securing breaches or disruptions of network communication. Security breaches include, but are not limited to, accessing data of which the employee is not an intended recipient or logging into a server or account that the employee is not expressly authorized to access, unless these duties are within the scope of regular duties. For purposes of this section, “disruption” includes, but is not limited to, network sniffing, pinged floods, packet spoofing, denial of service, and forged routing information for malicious purposes. Executing any form of network monitoring which will intercept data not intended for the employee’s host, unless this activity is a part of the employee’s normal job/duty. Circumventing user authentication or security of any host, network or account. Interfering with or denying service to any user other than the employee’s host (for example, denial of service attack).

Using any program/script/command, or sending messages of any kind, with the intent to interfere with, or disable a user’s terminal session, via any means, locally or via the Internet/Intranet/Extranet.

Providing information of a sensitive or confidential nature about Simmons College’s financial data, administrative operations, employee information, student information, other sensitive matters, other than what is published through official college channels and posted on Simmons College web page.

EMAIL AND COMMUNICATIONS ACTIVITIES

- Sending unsolicited email messages, including the sending of “junk mail” or other advertising material to individuals who did not specifically request such material (email spam).
- Any form of harassment via email, telephone or paging, whether through language, frequency, or size of messages.
- Unauthorized use or forging of email header information. Solicitation of email for any other email address, other than that of the poster’s account, with the intent to harass or to collect replies.
- Creating or forwarding “chain letters”, “Ponzi” or other “pyramid” schemes of any type.
- Use of unsolicited email originating from within Simmons College’s network of other Internet/Intranet/Extranet services provided on behalf of, or to advertise, any service hosted by Simmons College or connected via Simmons College’s network.
- Posting the same or similar non-business-related messages to large numbers of Usenet newsgroups (newsgroup spam).

BLOGGING

Blogging by employees, whether using Simmons College’s property and systems or personal computer systems, is also subject to the terms and restrictions set forth in this Policy. Limited and occasional use of Simmons College’s systems to engage in blogging is acceptable, provided that it is done in a professional and responsible manner, does not otherwise violate Simmons College’s policy, is not detrimental to Simmons College’s best interests, and does not interfere with an employee’s regular work duties.

Blogging from Simmons College’s systems is also subject to monitoring. Simmons College’s Confidential Information policy also applies to blogging. As such, employees are prohibited from revealing any company confidential or proprietary information, trade secrets or any other material covered by company’s Confidential Information policy when engaged in blogging.

Employees shall not engage in any blogging that may harm or tarnish the image, reputation and/or goodwill of Simmons College and/or any of its employees. Employees are also prohibited from making any discriminatory, disparaging, defamatory or harassing comments when blogging or otherwise engaging in any conduct prohibited by Simmons College’s Non-Discrimination and Anti-Harassment policy. Employees may also not attribute personal statements, opinions or beliefs to Simmons College when engaged in blogging.

If an employee is expressing his or her beliefs and/or opinions in blogs, the employee may not, expressily or implicitly, represent themselves as an employee or representative of Simmons College. Employees assume any and all risk associated with blogging. Apart from following all laws pertaining to the handling and disclosure of copyrighted or export controlled materials, Simmons College’s trademarks, logos and any other Simmons College intellectual property may also not be used in connection with any blogging activity.

ENFORCEMENT
Any employee found to have violated this policy may be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment, and may be further subject to civil sanctions as allowed by law.

REGISTRATION

REGISTRATION INFORMATION
Simmons college of Kentucky expects all new students (first time freshmen and transfer students) to report to campus before the start of classes as indicated on the published Academic Calendar to complete New Student Orientation (NSO) and academic advising for class registration. All students (new and returning) are expected to have a schedule and report to their classes beginning on the first day of class as specified on the Academic Calendar.
EARLY REGISTRATION
Currently Enrolled students may register in advance (pre-register) for the upcoming semester during the current semester. Early registration occurs in the Fall semester for the Spring semester and the Spring semester for the Summer and Fall semester.

TRADITIONAL REGISTRATION
Separate days are defined and noted in the Academic Calendar specifically for registration period. The following steps should be taken to successfully complete the registration process:

1. Complete financial aid process by filing or renewing the FAFSA each year. Contact the financial aid office to obtain your award letter.
2. Pay your semester bill or set up a payment plan to clear your financial obligations through the Bursar’s Office.
3. Contact and schedule an appointment with your academic advisor or department chair to select and register for courses. First and second year students should contact the Falcon Academic Center for Excellence (FACE). Third- and fourth-year students should contact their academic department chair.

VETERAN STUDENT REGISTRATION
Student seeking to use VA benefits to assist with tuition and fees, must self-identify through the Office of Military Affairs by submitting their Certificate of Eligibility Letter to the Director of Military Affairs. The Certificate of Eligibility must be on file with the Office of Military Affairs before a student can schedule an appointment with the Office of Financial Aid and be assessed for financial clearance. The following steps should be taken to successfully complete the registration process:

1. Complete financial aid process by filing or renewing the FAFSA each year. Contact the financial aid office to obtain your award letter (optional).
2. Student must self-identify by submitting their Certificate of Eligibility Letter to the Office of Military Affairs.
3. Pay your semester bill or set up a payment plan to clear your financial obligations through the Bursar’s Office.
4. Contact and schedule an appointment with your academic advisor or department chair to select and register for courses. First and second year students should contact the Falcon Academic Center for Excellence (FACE). Third- and fourth-year students should contact their academic department chair.

DROPPING/ADDING COURSES
Any student may drop or add one or more courses during the institution’s designated drop/add period (see Academic Calendar). Students can drop or add courses to their schedule during the drop/add period. A student must complete the Course Add Drop Form and submit it to their academic advisor in the Falcon Academic Center for Excellence (FACE) (Freshman & Sophomore) or their assigned advisor in their declared major (Junior & Senior) during the drop/add period.

A student may drop a course without academic consequences and receive a full refund for the course(s) only during the designated drop/add period. No classes may be added to their schedule after the drop/add period has ended. It is the responsibility of the student to complete the drop/add process.

LATE REGISTRATION
Late registration occurs the second week of classes during the Fall and Spring terms. Students must complete a Late Registration Form and submit it to the Office of the Registrar with all required signatures for approval. If approved, the student will be charged a Late Registration Fee of $75.00 (undergrad) or $200.00 (graduate).

ACADEMIC COURSE LOAD
Any student enrolled in twelve (12) semester hours or more is classified as a full-time student. Any student enrolled in less than twelve (12) semester hours is classified as a part-time student. The maximum number of semester hours for which a freshman can enroll is seventeen (17). The maximum course load for an upper-class student is 18 semester hours. (Some exceptions may be granted with the written permission from the Vice President of Academic Affairs or the appropriate designee.)

REPEAT OPTIONS
Each student enrolled in an educational program at Simmons College of Kentucky will be allowed three (3) repeat options. A repeat option is an aid to the student who, in the event of some difficulty in a course, does not achieve a passing or satisfactory grade. If a student does not achieve a satisfactory grade in a class, the student may exercise her repeat option in order to improve the grade. If a student receives a failing grade in a core course, the student must repeat the failed course. Repeat options must be approved by the Vice-President for Academic Affairs.

TEXTBOOKS
Textbooks for the classes offered at Simmons are included in an eLearning and eTextbook platform through Cengage Unlimited.

CLASS ATTENDANCE
Without being present, it is impossible to learn and benefit from college coursework. As a result, any student who accumulates more than TWELVE DAYS (excused and unexcused) on or before the withdrawal deadline (see Academic Calendar) must officially withdraw from the course and will receive a grade of "WP" if passing or "WF" if failing at the time of withdrawal. The student is responsible for keeping track of the total number of absences (posted in CANVAS). In the event of an emergency, documentation (i.e., doctor's excuse, funeral announcement, jury duty notice, etc.) must be provided on the first day of returning to class to make up any missed work. See online learner reference for asynchronous and synchronous courses.

NO SHOW
Instructors begin taking attendance on the first day of class. Students who have not attended or not logged into online classes and completed the first assignment (discussion post, pre-assessment, syllabus quiz, etc.) during the first 12 days of the course (census period) will be reported as a No Show and be dropped from the class. Students should note that this reduction in credit hours may cause a change in financial aid.

OFFICIAL TRANSCRIPTS
Each student is entitled to one unofficial transcript of his/her work, provided all financial accounts with the college are paid in full. Official transcripts are issued upon receipt of fifteen dollars ($15.00) per transcript or the then current transcript fee. These are issued only on the basis of written authorization by the student. (Only a students' final grade is entered on the permanent record.) The student’s permanent records are maintained in the Registrar's office in the Division of Academic Affairs.

STUDENT INITIATED COURSE WITHDRAWAL
Students are expected to complete the courses in which they register. However, a student may find it necessary to withdraw from a course prior to the completion of the semester and may do so during the institution's designated withdrawal period (see Academic Calendar). When a student finds it necessary to withdraw from a course, they should discuss the matter with their advisor and professor before withdrawing. Prior to withdrawing from a course, a student must meet all financial obligations or make suitable arrangements with the Financial Aid Office and Business Office.

Students withdrawing from a course(s) after the drop/add period will be responsible for full payment of tuition and fees for the entire semester. Student Athletes must be enrolled full-time (12 or more credits) to participate in athletic competitions.

Course Withdrawal Procedures – In order to officially withdraw from a course, a student must complete the following steps:
I. Obtain an Official Course Withdrawal Form from the Office of the Registrar.

II. Complete the Course Withdrawal Form and obtain the signature of the instructor for each registered course desiring withdrawal.
   a. Each instructor must indicate the Last Day of Attendance (LDA)
   b. Each instructor must indicate the status of the student’s withdrawal (WP- Withdrawal Passing or WF-Withdrawal Failing)

III. Obtain the signature of student’s academic advisor.

IV. Submit completed form with required signatures to the Office of THE Registrar.

NOTE: A student who stops attending a course(s) must officially withdraw from the course(s) to avoid a failing grade or grades appearing on the transcript. It is not the instructor’s or the college’s responsibility to withdraw a student from a course.

WITHDRAWAL FROM CLASS/COLLEGE/TERMINATION WITHDRAWAL FROM THE COLLEGE

Student Initiated College Withdrawal
Simmons College of Kentucky intends for all students to successfully complete their college education. However, a student may find it necessary to withdraw from the college prior to the completion of their degree. If this happens, a student who is enrolled in classes must complete a College Withdrawal Form, obtain all required signatures, and submit it to the Registrar’s Office.

It is the student’s obligation to properly withdraw from the college through the appropriate process. Students withdrawing from after the drop/add period will be responsible for full payment of tuition and fees for the entire semester. Non-attendance of classes does not classify as an official withdrawal. Withdrawing from Simmons College may adversely affect a student’s ability to receive Financial Aid, impact disbursements, and/or have academic consequences.

Administrative Withdrawal
The college reserves the right to terminate a student’s relationship with the school if it is deemed necessary to preserve the health, safety, and integrity of the college. The Administrative Withdrawal (AW) designation is used by the Office of Academic Affairs to administratively withdraw a student from the college due to extenuating circumstances.

A student may be administratively withdrawn from the college for the following reasons:
   • Failure to maintain a satisfactory academic record
• Behavior that violates generally acknowledged cannons and standards of scholarship or professional practice
• Behavior that is disruptive to the educational process
• Health of a student due to significant medical hardship (medical documentation required)

Disciplinary action is initiated by the Discipline Committee. The student in question has the right to appear before the committee. Upon the Discipline Committee's recommendation, the Faculty Senate decides whether to end a student's enrollment at the college. The committee may also impose lesser penalties such as reprimand or probation. The Faculty Senate reserves the right to withhold a degree from a candidate where there is compelling evidence of serious moral misconduct, or while disciplinary actions or criminal proceedings are pending.

NOTE: Any student whose behavior poses a serious threat to life or property may be immediately banned from the campus and prohibited from returning until the Disciplinary Committee has a chance to convene and review the matter.

LEAVE POLICY
Students must move through their program at an acceptable speed and complete an annual evaluation with their Academic Advisor. Students who do not make satisfactory progress are allowed one semester to get back on track. With a written recommendation from an appropriate physician and with the approval of the Office of Academic Affairs, a student who must interrupt study temporarily because of physical or psychological illness may be granted a medical leave of absence for one term of one academic year. Students who are granted a medical leave during a term will have their tuition adjusted according to the refund policy. Before returning to register for the next semester, students on medical leave must secure written permission from an appropriate physician and must follow the school’s procedure for readmission.

COURSE CANCELLATION
The Office of the Vice President reserves the right to cancel course sections for which there is insufficient enrollment or when necessary to meet changing situations. Students are encouraged to participate in advisement and pre-registration each semester to enable timely information and planning for class schedules, course offerings, and program and curriculum adjustments.

COURSE SYLLABI
All professors will provide all students enrolled in their course with a course syllabus at the beginning of the semester. This syllabus represents an agreement between the instructor and the students. The student's continued enrollment in the course constitutes acceptance of the requirements of the syllabus.
A professor may revise the syllabus appropriately and reasonably throughout the semester so long as such revisions are in writing and fair notice is given.
Students are responsible for complying with those revisions.
Students will refer to the syllabus throughout the semester for information on class attendance policies, grading, assignments, and deadlines.

CLASSROOM ENVIRONMENT
Simmons College of Kentucky is a Christian liberal arts college that upholds high standards of personal and professional conduct. This includes a classroom that promotes a positive learning environment and a professional instructional climate. Students are encouraged to conduct themselves in a professional manner with respect for the rights of both students and faculty. The College or its representatives reserve the right to act in situations where student behavior violates established policy or detracts from the ability of students or faculty to function effectively in the classroom. Such action may include disciplinary procedures issued by the faculty or may lead to suspension from the program.
GRADING SYSTEM
A student must receive a passing grade of “C” or better in all core and required courses of the major. When percentage equivalents are used as a basis for assigning letter grades, the following will prevail:

A = 100-90
B = 89-80
C = 79-70
D = 69-60

The unit of credit is a semester hour. The 4-point system is used to compute grade point standing. The quality point value per credit hour for each letter grade is as follows:

A = 4
B = 3
C = 2
D = 1
F = 0 (no credit)

FINAL EXAMINATIONS
Examinations may be taken only at the time scheduled for each particular course in the regular examination schedule. Students who are unavoidably prevented from taking final examinations at the appointed times will be allowed to take their final on the designated make-up day. Students who desire to take final exams earlier than the scheduled date must request and receive permission from the Office of Academic Affairs.
GRADE CHALLENGES
A student may submit two kinds of challenges to a grade. A student’s bringing to the attention of the instructor a clerical error in entering a grade on the student’s record is not a “challenge” in the sense used here, and the policies and procedures for “grade challenge” do not apply.

A. A student may challenge their final grade in a course on the grounds that:

B. The methods or criteria for evaluating academic performance as stated by the instructor at the beginning of the course were not actually applied in determining the final grade, and/or
   a. The instructor applied predetermined criteria unfairly: the evaluation of academic performance exceeds the reasonable limits of the instructor’s discretion as not to be acceptable to the instructor’s peers.

C. Policies Regarding a Grade Challenge
   a. Procedures for challenging a grade should meet the ordinary criteria of due process.
   b. The student who challenges a grade bears the full burden of proving that there are sufficient grounds for changing a grade.

D. Procedures for Challenging a Grade
   a. Discussion with and Explanation to the instructor.
      i. A student who is considering a grade challenge must discuss the grade with the instructor before the end of the following regular semester (Spring Semester and Summer Session challenges must be made before the end of the Fall Semester). This instructor is expected to discuss the grading with the student. Only if the instructor is neither at the college nor accessible by normal means of communication (telephone or email) during the following regular semester after the grade was issued, may the student proceed to challenge the grade without explaining the matter to the instructor. The instructor should document the discussion with the student and their determination of whether the grade would be changed or not. Copies of that documentation should be forwarded to the Vice President for Academic Affairs and the Registrar.
   ii. The instructor may, on his or her own authority, change the grade that is questioned. This should be done only in unusual circumstances. The instructor should submit the change of grade form to the Registrar for recording and submit to the Vice President a copy of it alone with a written explanation for the grade change.

b. Submission of written challenge.

c. After discussing the challenge with the instructor, the student may challenge a grade by submitting a written statement before the end of the following regular semester, giving in detail the reasons for the challenge. By the end of the semester, the student must submit two copies of the written challenge statement: one to the chair of the department in which the course was offered and one to the Vice President for Academic Affairs.

d. The Vice President for Academic Affairs will meet with the student to outline the review process. After meeting with the Vice President, should the student desired continue review of the grade challenge, the Vice President will forward one copy of the grade challenge to the Grade Challenge Review Board and one copy to the instructor. The Grade Challenge Review Board will also request any documentation from the Vice President regarding the outcome of the student’s discussion with the instructor regarding the grade challenge or the resolution of an alleged violation of academic integrity.

E. Procedures for Review

a. Grade challenges will be heard by the college Grade Challenge Review Board.

b. Annually, at the end of the spring semester, the faculty senate will ensure that the names of four faculty members from the Student Programs and Admissions Committee (SPA Committee) have been forwarded to the Records Office. The Grade Challenge Review Board will be comprised of three faculty members, selected from the pool of faculty designated to serve on the SPA Committee. No member of the Grade Challenge Review Board hearing a given case can be the instructor whose grade is being challenged.

c. The Grade Challenge Review Board will select its own chair and determine its own procedures for handling student grade challenges. The review procedures will meet the ordinary criteria of due process.

d. Decisions of the Grade Challenge Review Board are to be determined by a majority vote.
e. Normally, within two weeks after accepting the student’s challenge, the Grade Challenge Review Board is to reach one of the three following decisions:

F. Challenge affirmed and settled by consent. The Grade Challenge Review Board devises a conciliation mutually acceptable to the student and the instructor who gave the grade. Should the acceptable conciliation involve a change of grade, the instructor will submit a change of grade card to the dean of the college in which the course was taught.

G. Challenge affirmed and the Grade Challenge Review Board recommends a change of grade to the Vice President for Academic Affairs, who will notify the instructor in which the course was taught.
   a. Challenge denied; original grade stands.
   b. The decision recommended by the Grade Challenge Review Board is to be communicated in writing by the Board chair directly to the Vice President for Academic Affairs, who will implement the recommendation by notifying the department chair, the instructor, and the student.

H. Decisions by the Grade Challenge Review Board on academic grade challenges are final and binding on all parties. These policies and procedures will be reviewed during the Spring semester every third year by the Faculty Senate, in the expectation that necessary and desirable revisions will be proposed to the Vice President for Academic Affairs.

ACADEMIC HONESTY AND PLAGIARISM

Students are expected to exhibit honesty in the classroom, in homework, in papers submitted to the instructor, in quizzes or tests, and in all other aspects of their dealings with Simmons College. Any deviation from ordinary standards such as the permitted use of notes for an examination or an “open book” test should be stated clearly by the instructor.

Cheating includes, but is not limited to, submitting work for academic evaluation that is not the student’s own, copying answers from another student during an examination, using prepared notes or materials during an examination that are not previously authorized for use during examinations, other misrepresentations of academic achievement submitted for evaluation and a grade, and plagiarism. Plagiarism in research writing is considered cheating. Plagiarism is defined as “the act of using another person’s ideas or expressions in writing without acknowledging the source . . . to repeat as your own someone else’s sentences, more or less verbatim.”

A student discovered to have cheated and charged with cheating, including plagiarism, during his or her college matriculation is subject to sanctions. The current policy adopted by the faculty senate is as follows:

Where the facts show that students committed plagiarism by careless research and citation methods and merely failed to credit sources they were otherwise allowed to cite, for the first offense, students will be referred to the Student Learning Center, where they will be briefed on plagiarism and instructed on how to take a test or an online tutorial to obtain certification of their understanding of plagiarism, or the center or its designee will provide another form of certifying the student now understands plagiarism and its consequences.

Students who do not receive certification within three weeks of their offense will be assigned an F for the course. Those receiving the certification will be allowed to continue in the course and any penalty shall be at the discretion of the professor. Once certification is received and shared with the professor, the professor will notify the office of Academic Affairs of the infraction and the certification. It shall be the responsibility of the office of Academic Affairs to maintain a list of students who have been required to complete this certified training.

SUBSEQUENT OFFENSES AFTER RECEIVING CERTIFICATION

First offense: Student fails the assignment and Academic Affairs is notified. Second offense (which can be a second offense in the original course or a first offense in any course during their academic career at Simmons), student fails the assignment and is required to meet with the Vice President for Academic Affairs.

Third offense, student fails the course.

Fourth offense, student fails the course, and a disciplinary hearing is held to determine whether student should be expelled.

If a student is not expelled after the fourth offense, and a fifth offense occurs, a recommendation to dismiss the student will be sent to the Vice President for Academic Affairs.
Because cheating cumulatively leads to dismissal, faculty are required to report each observed case to the Vice President for Academic Affairs as noted above.

Unquestionable evidence must be in hand before any action will be taken to confront and accuse a student of cheating, and faculty members must provide the details of the situation to the administration before confronting the student with the alleged violation.

INCOMPLETE (I) COURSEWORK

An incomplete (I) is the provisional grade given pending fulfillment of an outstanding course requirement. The “I” indicates that the student previously demonstrated satisfactory academic performance in the class, but for exceptional reasons beyond his/her control, was unable to complete a specific requirement such as an assignment, a report, an examination, or experiment. The grade of “I” is only granted when a student who is passing the course with a grade of “C” or better for specific purposes such as:

1. Illness which prevented the student from taking the final examination for the course.
2. Illness throughout the semester prevented the student from completing more than one requirement for the course.
3. The student can provide documented evidence to substantiate other valid extenuating circumstances beyond the student’s control that prevented his/her completion of required work.

The student seeking an incomplete must submit an Incomplete Grade Request Form along with valid documentation to both the instructor and department chair for approval. The request must be submitted prior to the official last day of classes. (See academic calendar.) All incomplete work must be submitted five (5) weeks or twenty-five (25) working days after the last day of classes. Any incomplete course work after the twenty-fifth day automatically becomes a failing grade (F.)

A Grade Change Form must be submitted to the Registrar's Office showing that the outstanding requirements has been satisfied and the "I" removed.
STATEMENT ON ACADEMIC RIGOR

100-LEVEL COURSES
100-level courses are foundational and assume that the student has little to no knowledge of the subject matter. The focus is on the introduction to terms, concepts, techniques, and ways of thinking/learning within discipline, typically in the context of a relatively broad survey of topics.

READING: Most instructors of 100-level courses assign readings from textbooks (if a suitable text is available) as well as from a range of supplementary readings that may include both primary and secondary source material. Weekly assignments typically consist of approximately 100 pages divided among texts, secondary readings, and primary source materials.

STUDENT WRITING 8-10+ pages (standard font, double-spaced, with references), excluding exams.
EXAMS: A midterm and a final exam.

PARTICIPATION: At least 10% toward the final grade.

200 LEVEL COURSES
200-level courses continue with introduction to terms and concepts within the discipline, although typically within a more narrowly defined topic. The learner has been exposed to related topics but not necessarily to the specifics of the subject matter.

READING: Most instructors of 200-level courses combine textbooks with supplemental primary and secondary readings. As with the 100 level, about 100 pages are typically assigned weekly.

WRITING: 8-15 pages (standard font, double-spaced, with references), excluding exams.

EXAMS: A midterm and final exam.
PARTICIPATION: Structure allowing, minimum of 10% of grade.
300-LEVEL COURSES
300 level classes facilitate the development of specialized terms, concepts, techniques, and approaches pertaining to a narrowly defined topic within the discipline. The learner has advanced to in-depth familiarity with basic terms, concepts, techniques, and approaches of the discipline.

READING: Weekly assignments typically include at least 120 pages divided between primary source readings and scholarly treatments.

WRITING: Most courses require a paper or papers totaling at least 10-15 pages. Student papers must develop well-supported arguments on the basis of research in primary sources and the interpretation of texts.

EXAMS: A midterm and final exam. PARTICIPATION: At least 10% of grade.

400-LEVEL COURSES
400 level classes are advanced and involve critical analysis of the most current terms, concepts, techniques, and approaches shaping the discipline. The learner has become proficient in critical thinking and the ability to solve problems.

WRITING: A research paper of 10-20+ pages.

READING: At least 120 pages divided between secondary and primary sources.

EXAMS: A midterm and a final.

PARTICIPATION: Minimum of 10% of grade.

ACADEMIC STANDING

Good Academic Standing
A student with a cumulative grade of 2.0 or higher is considered in good academic standing.

ACADEMIC HONORS
Excellence in academic achievement is recognized by inducting students into the National Alpha Sigma Lambda Honor Society and by presenting accolades to achievers on the President’s List and Academic Honors. These presentations are made each semester during the Academic Honors Convocation program.

Alpha Sigma Lambda Honor Society
Alpha Sigma Lambda Honor Society was founded by Dr. Rollin Posey in January 1946 on the campus of Northwestern University as a means of recognizing superior scholarship among students. Its purpose is “to bind together into one Society the excellent students within the University College in order to provide a stimulus to and recognition for their worthy efforts to make best use of their college years. The society’s colors are burgundy and gold which signify “power” and “wisdom” respectively. The name “Alpha Sigma Lambda” means “First in Scholarship and Leadership”. Students who achieve a grade point average of 3.2 on a 4.0 scale are invited to join.

President’s List
Following each semester, the Registrar prepares a list of students with a GPA between 3.75 and 4.0 for the College President. Students on this list receive a congratulatory letter and public recognition at the Academic Honors Convocation.

Academic Honors
Following each semester, the Registrar prepares a list of students with a GPA between 3.40 and 3.74 Vice President of Academic Affairs. Students on this list receive a congratulatory letter and public recognition at the Academic Honors Convocation.
ACADEMIC PROBATION/SUSPENSION
At the end of each semester, the Simmons College of Kentucky runs end-of-term processing. This updates GPAs and automatically puts students on probation or suspension. Simmons Success Coaching Team sends an email to students that are placed on academic probation or continued probation and a letter to students that are suspended at the end of each semester.

Academic Warning
Students are placed on Academic Warning if they earned below a 2.0 GPA at the end of the semester.

Academic Probation
Students are placed on continued Academic Probation if they haven't brought their cumulative GPA up after being placed on Probation 1.

Academic Suspension
Students are placed on Academic Suspension if they have received a cumulative GPA below a 2.0 for three consecutive terms.
- Students who have been academically suspended from another college the semester/quarter before they apply to Simmons are put on academic suspension.
- All academically suspended students are required to sit out one 16-week semester and follow the Academic Reinstatement Process outlined below for re-admission to the college.

Academic Reinstatement Process
If a student has satisfied their suspension period imposed by the college, they are eligible to seek reinstatement by completing the following steps:
1. Submit a completed Request for Reinstatement Form. Upon approval of reinstatement to the college, it is important to take the following additional actions.
2. Meet with a Simmons Success Coach in FACE to create a Satisfactory Academic Progress Contract. You will be connected to your coach upon approval of your reinstatement.
3. Contact the Financial Aid Office about your eligibility for federal financial aid. Students may need to submit a satisfactory academic progress appeal and documentation to the Office of Financial Aid to fund their tuition payment.
4. Contact the Student Account Department to be sure your student account is in good standing, clear of any business holds preventing you from course registration.
5. Make an appointment with your assigned FACE advisor to get enrolled into courses.
ACADEMIC PROGRESS AND GRADUATION

Students are expected to conform to the academic standards of Simmons College of Kentucky and make progress towards the completion of one of the academic programs listed in this catalog.

Students who do not demonstrate adequate progress may be recommended by the faculty to be placed on academic probation, until the student’s academic performance improves regardless of GPA. Students are expected to make continual progress towards an academic program listed in this catalog. Students are given three (3) years to complete an Associate degree, and five (5) years to complete a Bachelor’s degree. Additional time requirements may apply to specific degree programs. Failure to finish programs within these specified times may result in removal from these programs.

Successful completion of a bachelor’s degree requires a minimum GPA of 2.0 within the student’s major and approval to graduate on the part of the faculty.

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

Application

Seniors (90 earned credit hours or above) who wish to graduate at the end of a given semester must submit a completed Application for Graduation and pay the graduation fee before the deadline of application for that semester (the fee covers the printing of the diploma and purchase of the cap and gown). Deadlines for application submission are indicated on the Academic Calendar each semester.

Each student must satisfy the minimum completion of at least 120 semester credit hours with a minimum cumulative grade point average (GPA) of 2.0 and completion of twenty (20) Student Service Learning credits.

All students must complete all graduation requirements (credit hours and requirements) to participate in the commencement ceremony and activities. No Exceptions. Simmons College of Kentucky holds one formal graduation ceremony at the conclusion of the Spring semester each year. However, degrees are conferred in each term once the student has completed all requirements and paid fees.

REQUIREMENTS

1. Satisfactory completion of at least 120 semester credit hours with a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.0.
2. Completion of the last 21 semester credit hours at SCKY.
3. Satisfactory completion (a minimum course grade if C in each core and major required course) of all degree requirements for the chosen major to include core and major required courses by the major program and additional requirements by the major program.

4. Satisfactory completion of the required General Education courses of a minimum of 36 credit hours.

5. Satisfactory completion of the Biblical/Ethical courses of a maximum of 30 credit hours.

6. Earn a minimum of 20 Student Service Learning hours.

Additional Graduation Requirements

- Satisfy all financial obligations to the College, including payment of the graduation fees
- Return borrowed Library books and clear outstanding Library fines or fees
- Complete the financial aid exit interview

The list of potential graduates is presented to the faculty for a vote of approval for graduation.

GRADUATION HONORS

To be considered for honors at graduation, a baccalaureate candidate must have completed at least 90 credit hours of graded coursework at Simmons College and have a grade point average of 3.5 or higher for all graded coursework earned at SCKY. Students transferring from other institutions are required to submit all grades earned at their previous institution(s). The academic distinction is conferred at graduation upon deserving students who have achieved the following cumulative GPAs:

<table>

NOTE: The GPA is not rounded up when determining honors at graduation (e.g., 3.499 is not the same as 3.500).
EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMS
Simmons College of Kentucky has fourteen educational programs:

- Associate of Arts in General Studies
- Associate of Arts in Religious Studies
- Associate of Arts in Teacher Education (Non-Licensure)
- Associate of Applied Science in Early Childhood Education
- Bachelor of Arts in Applied Mathematics
- Bachelor of Arts in Applied Psychology
- Bachelor of Arts in Business Entrepreneurship
- Bachelor of Arts in Cross-Cultural Communication
- Bachelor of Arts in Interdisciplinary Studies
- Bachelor of Arts in Music Performance
- Bachelor of Arts in Religious Studies
- Bachelor of Arts in Sociology
- Bachelor of Science in Computer Information Systems
- Master of Science in Medical Sciences

DEGREE PROGRAMS
The Associate of Arts in Religious Studies and Associate of Arts in General Studies programs are both sixty (60) credit hour courses of study. The Associate program is designed to be completed in two years, full-time.

The Bachelor of Arts and Science programs are four (4) year, 120 credit hour programs. (Some degree programs may require more than 120 hours.)

As a requirement of our accrediting body, all BA and BS students must take ten three-hour courses designated as “Biblical-Ethical” courses. Students pursuing an associate degree must take six three-hour courses designated as “Biblical-Ethical” courses. These courses are identified as such throughout this catalog.
ASSOCIATE OF ARTS IN GENERAL STUDIES
The Associate of Arts in General Studies degree program offers students the opportunity to explore a wide range of subjects, providing them with a well-rounded education and a solid foundation for future academic pursuits. Courses within the program cover areas such as Mathematics, English, Social Sciences, Humanities, and such. The curriculum is designed to foster critical thinking skills, enhance communication abilities, and promote personal growth and development.

AA Online Degree Option
The online degree option of the Associate of Arts in General Studies program is designed specifically for individuals seeking a flexible and convenient pathway to higher education. This online degree option provides students with the opportunity to earn their associate degree in a collaborative and technologically-driven learning environment.

The online degree option features accelerated 8-week asynchronous courses which gives students the freedom to access course materials, engage in discussions, and complete assignments at their convenience, allowing for greater work-life balance and tailored learning experiences.

All students working towards the Associate of Arts in General Studies degree are expected to successfully complete the following core courses:

Area A: Communication Skills (9 credits)
ENG 101 English Composition I
ENG 102 English Composition II
Choose one:
ENG 103 Introduction to Literature Or
COM 100 Public Speaking

Area B: Quantitative Reasoning (6 or 7 credits)
Must take one MAT course and
ENG 202 Introduction to Research

ASSOCIATE OF ARTS IN RELIGIOUS STUDIES

The program in Religious Studies brings together the rich history of biblical and theological studies here at Simmons College of Kentucky with the academic study of religion common at most universities and colleges across the U. S. We offer both traditional courses like Introduction to the Old and New Testaments, Christian Theology, Church History, and Preaching and culturally relevant ministry courses such as Ministry in the Black Church, Introduction to Social Welfare and the Church, Urban Church Growth, The Church and Social Action, and Conflict Ministry. We also offer innovative Special Topics courses in Bible, Theology and Ministry. Students will learn about the religious ideas and traditions that shaped history and influence the world today. They will learn to think critically about faith and its varied contours and practices in the world, particularly philosophical and religious questions and ideas rooted in the African American tradition. These courses will equip students to be intelligent, innovative, and bold leaders that will impact our world and revitalize our communities.

The requirements for an Associate of Arts in Religious Studies Degree are in two parts: Core Curriculum and Religious Studies.

Core Curriculum:
All students working towards the Associate of Arts degree are expected to successfully complete the following core curriculum courses as well as the required courses in the Religious Studies curriculum.

Area A: Communication Skills (9 credits)
ENG 101 English Composition I
ENG 102 English Composition II
Choose one:
ENG 103 Introduction to Literature Or
COM 100 Public Speaking

Area B: Quantitative Reasoning (6 or 7 credits)

HIS 207 African American History
SOC 101 Foundations of Sociology
POL 101 American Government & Politics
PSY 101 Foundations of Psychology

Institutional Requirements (3 credits)
FRE 101 Foundations to Success

Biblical/Ethical Requirements (12 credits)
Per ABHE Standard 11a, 10: 12 semester hours of Biblical/Ethical courses are required for an associate degree.

Total Core Requirements: 28 credits

All students working towards the Associate of Arts degree are expected to complete ENG 101, ENG 102 and ENG 103 or COM 100 within the first 24 credit hours of study. Students may not enroll in any 300 or 400 level course until they have successfully completed English 101 and any other prerequisites with a grade of C or better.

Part Two of Associate Degree, Biblical-Ethical Courses: 33 Credits
All students working towards the Associate of Arts Degree are expected to successfully complete the following religious studies courses:
The following courses are required:

REL 100 Introduction to Religious Studies
BTS 105 Foundation of Ethics
BTS 200 Introduction to Old Testament
BTS 201 Introduction to New Testament
THS 201 Christian Theology

Students may then select 6 courses from within the Religious Studies program.
Two of these courses must be in biblical studies. Only two of them may come from the Foundations Courses in religion, because these are designed primarily for students not pursuing a degree in Religious Studies. Students may not enroll in any 300 or 400 level course until they have successfully completed English 101 and any other prerequisites with a grade of C or better.

ASSOCIATE OF ARTS IN TEACHER EDUCATION (Non-Licensure)

The Teacher Education (non-licensure) degree is designed to provide students with the foundation necessary to transition to four-year programs to pursue primary teaching licensure. Foundations of education, school system organization and structure, teaching students with special needs, multicultural education, efficient teaching strategies, and technology integration in teaching and learning are all introduced to the student.

Program Objective
The program’s objective is to support the development of dynamic, pre-professional educators who work together for the good of the profession, the school, the community, and each other. Inquiry, contemplation, experiences in field-based learning, and quality in teaching, and learning will be used to fulfill this objective. Through inquiry and reflection in a Christian learning environment, the unit oversees bringing theory and practice together while equipping students with the information, skills, and dispositions necessary to be performative students and agents of change.

Program Learning Outcomes
Upon completion of the Teacher Education (non-licensure) program, students will be able to:

• Analyze a variety of educational philosophies and approaches through observation and reflection and develop personal learning styles and an individual teaching philosophy.
• Compare a variety of instructional strategies and methods that address individual learners and learning styles in order to cultivate collaborative critical thinking and creative problem-solving skills in diverse student populations.
• Utilize effective interpersonal, instructional, and cultural communication techniques to promote active learning, dialogue, collaboration, and positive interactions with peers, school officials, parents, and students.
• Demonstrate the understanding and knowledge necessary to promote cross-cultural understanding and education equity in the classroom by adapting curriculum and instructional strategies to meet the diverse needs of students.
• Construct inquiry-based learning experiences that integrate technologies to engage students in individual and collaborative learning.
• Define what it means to be a competent, ethical, and professional teacher in a democratic, diverse, and technological society in order to develop a commitment to professional growth and to the legal and racial responsibilities of public-school teachers.

All students working towards the Associate of Arts in Teacher Education are required to successfully complete the following courses:

BACHELOR OF ARTS IN APPLIED MATHEMATICS

Applied mathematics focuses on learning the theory of mathematics in a context that can be applied to real-world problems. The baccalaureate degree program in Applied Mathematics at Simmons College of Kentucky is designed to provide students with an understanding of the theory of many different areas of mathematics so that they are positioned to apply it in many fields. While they will be prepared to enter a graduate program, the program emphasis is preparing students to be immediately employable in discipline related fields upon receiving the undergraduate degree.

Program Outcomes
Upon completion of this program students will be able to:

- Solve problems relating to calculus, algebra, probability, and statistics
- Demonstrate mathematical and critical thinking, including logical reasoning, formal proof development, generalizations, and applications
- Communicate mathematical ideas with clarity and accuracy, both written and verbally
- Apply mathematical techniques to areas outside of mathematics. In particular, students will be able to utilize these ideas for the betterment of their community and apply math skills in their vocation as an agent of change.

Students working toward a Bachelor of Arts in Applied Mathematics must complete the following courses with a grade of “C” or better.

Area A: Communication Skills (9 credits)
ENG 101 English Composition I
ENG 102 English Composition II
Choose one:
ENG 103 Introduction to Literature Or

BACHELOR OF ARTS IN APPLIED PSYCHOLOGY

The Applied Psychology degree is designed to provide students with a broad ethical understanding of the psychological underpinnings of self and others, and skills to meet current job market demands. The program will prepare students to use psychological theories, concepts, and methods to address real world problems, especially those involving Black communities. Specialized transdisciplinary tracks will allow students to focus on specific employment goals.

Program Objective
The overall objective of the Bachelor of Science in Applied Psychology program is to prepare students to become effective change agents by giving them the knowledge and skills to obtain employment in fields that will allow them to ethically address social and psychological issues affecting communities of color and other populations who have been underrepresented and overlooked in the distribution of access and advantage.

Program Learning Outcomes
Upon completion of this program students will be able to:
- Demonstrate knowledge and comprehension of major psychological theories and concepts, and their application for addressing real-world issues related to human behavior and mental processes.
- Display critical thinking and scientific reasoning to design and perform basic social science research.
- Demonstrate ethical and justice informed approaches problem solving.
- Effectively use writing and verbal skills to critically evaluate, synthesize, and distribute information.
- Exhibit entry-level cognitive, behavioral, and communication competencies in professional settings.

BACHELOR OF ARTS IN BUSINESS
The Bachelor of Arts in Business is a four-year degree program designed to combine liberal arts, an ethical worldview, and business education. Urban communities are often neglected enterprise zones for job creation, thus necessitating a new generation of business leaders and entrepreneurs to lead, manage, and develop sustainable, innovative ventures that enhance the urban economy, solve problems, and meet the needs of the greater community.

The specific outcomes are to:

Display knowledge of the key elements of the entrepreneurial process including opportunity recognition and evaluation, concept development, resource procurement, and implementation leading to the creation and capture of value. Appropriate, implement, and evaluate the principles of business, economics, ethics, and the social sciences, at tactic and strategic levels, to creatively address and solve social problems that are challenging lives and communities in the urban context (social entrepreneurship).

Develop a commitment to ethical and professional character and abilities and make business decisions based on an awareness of relevant stakeholders, community demands, and an attempt to create and sustain social and economic value.

Understand, interpret, and be able to communicate (written and oral) the key concepts and practices in core business functions (accounting, marketing, management, statistics, and the business-legal system). Demonstrate an ethical, resourceful, strategic, and just commitment to social transformation.

BACHELOR OF ARTS IN CROSS-CULTURAL COMMUNICATION

The Bachelor of Arts in Cross-Cultural Communication is a four-year degree program designed to integrate the liberal arts with the discipline of communication towards the creation of an ethical worldview for students. The local, national, and global trends of the 21st century challenge Simmons College of Kentucky to produce a workforce that can communicate across various social, political, and economic cultures.

The Department of Cross-Cultural Communication offers courses in interpersonal, intercultural, and mass communication as well as rhetoric and other liberal arts. Students are trained for professional, business, and educational careers in mass media, advertising and public relations, communication studies and leadership.

Program Learning Objectives
Students who complete this program will be able to:
1. Read and practice critical thinking across communication theories and culture(s).
2. Commit to personal and professional development in social settings and professions.
3. Integrate communication skills with ethical values, vocations, and lifestyles.
4. Engage social justice practices across cultures and communication fields.
5. Identify and acquire resources for educational and professional achievement.

Student Learning Outcomes:
1. Write proficient college composition that produces critical thinking and/or research to Cross-Cultural Communication and other disciplines.
3. Develop a biblical-ethical worldview impacted by Christian values and faith in relation to Cross-Cultural Communication.
4. Participate in service-learning opportunities that connect with diverse communities.
5. Acquire professional internships and/or occupations in communication.

This program emphasizes the exploration of various academic fields, promoting interdisciplinary thinking and fostering well-rounded individuals with a deep understanding of social justice and commitment to positive change.

Program Objective
The overall objective of the Bachelor of Arts in Interdisciplinary Studies program is to prepare students for a range of professions that require critical thinking, interdisciplinary problem-solving, and a deep understanding of social justice issues. Whether pursuing a career in law, media, gender advocacy, or social activism, graduates will have the knowledge and skills to effect positive change in their communities and beyond.

Program Learning Outcomes
Upon completion of this program students will be able to:

- Articulate reasons for the interconnectedness of their chosen fields of study
- Demonstrate knowledge in depth as well as in breadth through a selected range of their fields of study
- Demonstrate critical, analytical, and synthesizing skills that characterize exploration beyond disciplinary boundaries
- Engage in professionally oriented activities geared toward individual career or post-graduate goals

Students enrolled in this program can choose from four concentrations:

- Black Film and Media Studies
- Pre-Law and Constitutional Studies
- Women and Gender Studies

Each of the three concentrations provide students with a specialized curriculum tailored to their academic interests and career goals, while maintaining a focus on social justice issues and black-centric perspectives.

Students who wish to enter the Interdisciplinary Studies Program must meet with the respective Program Director and complete a major declaration form to select an Interdisciplinary Studies program, including a statement of goals, an indication of the disciplines to be studied, and a listing of possible courses for the program. They must have a cumulative GPA of 2.5 to be admitted.

BACHELOR OF SCIENCE IN COMPUTER INFORMATION SYSTEMS

The Bachelor of Science in Computer Information Systems program is designed to provide a theoretical and practical introduction to technology including systems, programming languages, networking, data analytic tools, and methods appropriate for managing and processing big data. Students will be prepared for careers in a range of professions from Programmers to Project Managers by integrating theory and realistic problems to develop practical skills that help businesses, government, and other organizations develop strategies and make informed decisions.

Program Objectives
Students who complete this program will be able to:

- Practice critical thinking and research skills in computing through analysis, evaluation, and implementation of technology solutions
- Engage in lifelong learning through continued professional development
- Serve in professional organizations and local communities

Program Learning Outcomes
- Analyze a complex computing problem and apply principles of computing and other relevant disciplines to identify solutions.
- Design, implement, and evaluate a computing-based solution to meet a given set of computing requirements in the context of the program’s discipline.
- Communicate effectively in a variety of professional contexts.
- Recognize professional responsibilities and make informed judgments in computing practice based on legal and ethical principles.
- Function effectively as a member or leader of a team engaged in activities appropriate to the program’s discipline.

Total Major Requirements: 36 Credits

The Bachelor of Science in Computer Information Systems degree program offers concentrations in Data Science and Analytics and Web and Mobile Application Development.
Data Science and Analytics Concentration
Massive volumes of data are produced in companies around the world, including those in the construction and transportation industries as well as those in the healthcare, banking, and retail sectors. Data Science is a discipline that focuses on data acquisition by combining scientific methods, programming skills, and statistical knowledge to manage and analyze data in order to solve problems, make informed decisions, and communicate the results of such data.

Concentration Mission: The Data Science and Analytics concentration will prepare today’s students to become tomorrow’s leaders in business and industry. This program is also designed for students who plan to seek advanced degrees in data science or a related discipline.

Concentration Requirements
CIS 200  Advanced Spreadsheet Applications
DSC 110  Introduction to Data Science and Analytics DSC 320  Data and Information Visualization
DSC 340  Decision Science and Analytics
DSC 410  Big Data Analytics
CIS 440  Occupational Internship

Web and Mobile Applications Development Concentration
Every day, billions of smartphone users around the world use mobile applications, and over 230 billion applications were downloaded in 2019. Mobile application development is the process of creating software applications that run on mobile devices and can be found in a variety of fields, including education, social media, business, healthcare, and communication, among others.

Concentration Mission: The Web and Mobile Application Development concentration will prepare students to create and use web and mobile applications to provide and implement technological solutions across all industries. This program is also designed for students who plan to seek advanced degrees in software development or a related discipline.

Concentration Requirements
CIS 214  Introduction to Web Development
CIS 225  Mobile Application Programming
CIS 230  Internet Programming
CIS 320  Networking Concepts and Fundamentals
CIS 420  Management Information Systems

MASTER OF SCIENCE IN MEDICAL SCIENCES

The Master of Science in Medical Sciences degree is designed to prepare students for a successful career in medicine by increasing diversity focusing on communities of color. In Simmon’s MSMS program, the 42-credit degree program course of study aligns with the traditional first year of medical school courses, which will advance students’ academics, MCAT score, and prepare students for entry into medical school and other medical professions.

Program Objective
Upon completion of this program, students will:

• Increase diversity in medicine
• Improve their scientific and medical knowledge
• Address health disparities in communities of color
• Collaborate effectively with healthcare providers and community
• Improve credentials for medical school admission and other health professions

Program Learning Outcomes

• Demonstrate knowledge of medical sciences and competencies comparable to first-year medical school curriculum
• Develop a competency to be creative, critical, and analytical scholars.
• Perform research in an ethical behavior
• Demonstrate proficiency to critically read, comprehend, and analyze work and the scientific literature and its impact on medicine, society, and community
• Develop expertise and skill set consistent with success in medical and other health professions

Major Requirements
ANM 6011 Human Gross Anatomy, Embryology, and Imaging
ANM 6051 Histology and Cell Biology
PHM 6020 Neuroscience
BCM 6121 Medical Biochemistry I
BCM 6122 Medical Biochemistry II
MIM 6420 Microbiology I
PHM 6921 Physiology I
PHM 6922 Physiology II
IHD 919 Interprofessional Perspectives in Health Disparities
MEM 6350 Medical Ethics

The courses in the Master of Science in Medical Sciences program are delivered in the form of recorded lectures with accompanying in class-sessions using the flipped classroom model, together with small group discussions of clinical cases. One of the main intentions of the small group discussions is for the medical students to apply the concepts learned in lectures to understand the molecular basis of a given disease.
COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

AHN 211 | Introduction to Anthropology | 3 Credits
This course provides an introduction to the field of anthropology, offering students insights into human culture, society, and history. This course facilitates a deeper understanding of diverse communities and socio-cultural dynamics.
Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of ENG 102 with a grade of “C” or better.

ART 101 | Art Appreciation | 3 Credits
This course provides an introduction to the many genres of visual art from a historical and cultural perspective. This course will give the student an understanding and appreciation for the different fine and applied art areas of drawing, painting, graphic art, sculpture, photography, printmaking, ceramics, architecture, etc. Important periods of art history from primitive to contemporary art will be presented through lectures and visuals.
Prerequisite(s): None

ART 102 | Introduction to Theatre | 3 Credits
Introduction to Theatre familiarizes students with the art of theatre. Students will be introduced to the elements of dramatic literature and its historical, theoretical, sociological and entertainment value in society, from the classical to the contemporary period.
Prerequisite(s): None

BFI 101 | Introduction to Black and Media Studies | 3 Credits
This course explores the historical and contemporary evolution of Black film and media studies for the next generation of Black storytellers. Students will engage in interactive lectures, readings, discussions, and assignments to investigate the strategies of Black storytellers, including filmmakers and producers, in film and television in presenting the Black cultural experience to the world. Topics include script writing, research, roles, and responsibilities in the industry.
Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of FRE 100 with a grade of “C” or better.

BFI 201 | Advanced Black and Media Studies | 3 Credits
This course builds upon BFI 101 and provides students with a practical learning opportunity to apply their introductory knowledge of Black film and media to a culminating student project/production. Through a hands-on workshop-style learning experience, students will engage in pre-production, production, and post-production phases to complete a student-led project/production focused on Black narratives in the film and television industry for the Raising Simmons docuseries.
Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of BFI 101 with a grade of “C” or better.
BFI 203 | Introduction to Audio Production | 3 Credits
This course is designed to familiarize the student with the tools and techniques of audio production through an immersive learning experience tailored to the film industry.
Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of BFI 201 with a grade of “C” or better.

BFI 301 | Screenwriting and Scriptwriting | 3 Credits
This course is designed to introduce and engage the next generation of storytellers in a workshop-style scriptwriting learning environment. Students will cultivate their understanding and skills in filmmaking from the perspective of a creative writer. Fundamentals of original scriptwriting and screenwriting as storytellers for the uplift of Black narratives will be explored.
Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of ENG 102 with a grade of “C” or better.

BFI 401 | Advanced Screenwriting and Script Writing | 3 Credits
This course builds upon BFI 301 Screenwriting and Scriptwriting. Students will engage in a hands-on and immersive workshop-style course tailored to empower and elevate aspiring storytellers to excel in filmmaking from the perspective of a creative writer and social justice change agent. Students will create and complete one episode in the docuseries “Raising Simmons” as the semester culminating student project. Students will develop a comprehensive understanding of original scriptwriting and screenwriting techniques focused on developing authentic stories celebrating and uplifting Black experiences.
Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of BFI 301 with a grade of “C” or better.

BTS 101 | Foundations of Human Dignity | 3 Credits
This course will explore human interaction in families, communities, and personal and business worlds to understand when dignity is violated, which leads to aggression, violence, hatred, and vengeance. This course will have an example of issues in life that involve the role dignity plays in our lives and learning to put dignity into practice in everyday life.
Prerequisite(s):

BTS 102 | The Transcendent in Religion, Culture, and Scripture | 3 Credits
This course provides an examination of primary texts in the Hebrew Bible and Christian Scriptures and how they shape our understanding of the divine.
Prerequisite(s):

BTS 104 | The Church and Social Action | 3 Credits
This course provides an examination of primary texts in the Hebrew Bible and Christian Scriptures and how they offer comparative ideas and patterns of community.
Prerequisite(s):
BTS 105 | Foundations of Ethics | 3 Credits
This course provides an examination of primary texts in the Hebrew Bible and Christian Scriptures and how they have impacted our understanding of ethics.
Prerequisite(s):

BTS 200 | Introduction to the Hebrew Scriptures | 3 Credits
This course provides an overview of the literature of the Hebrew Bible and answers foundational questions about context, message and meaning of the writings.
Prerequisite(s):

BTS 201 | Introduction to the Christian Scriptures | 3 Credits
This course provides an overview of the literature of the Christian Scriptures. Answers foundational questions about context, message and meaning of the writings.
Prerequisite(s):

BTS 202 | Introduction to Biblical Languages | 3 Credits
This course equips students with the skills needed to understand Hebrew and Greek well enough to use critical tools to better understand the meaning of the Bible in its original languages. The focus of this course is not on memorization for the purpose of being able to translate, but rather on the use of critical tools such as commentaries and electronic resources. (Note: In previous catalogs there was a two-semester language requirement. Those who wish to continue following those catalogs, but who have not yet met their language requirement, may meet their language requirement by taking BTS202 and one additional NTS or OTS course.)
Prerequisite(s):

BUS 101 | Foundations of Business and Society | 3 Credits
This course introduces the student to an overall picture of American business and the opportunities it offers; it includes basic business concepts and critically analyzes issues facing business in its interactions with government, people and the environment. Basic business finance, accounting, human resources, operations, marketing, management and strategy concepts and practices are studied through the lens of their impact on society. Some of the questions examined are: How do managers make financial, marketing, and strategic decisions in the face of competing demands of the various stakeholders? What are product pricing, distribution, and promotional strategies and what are ethical dilemmas faced in implementing them? What impacts do e-business and global business have on business, society, laws, and business decisions? How can businesses manage human resources for both quality of life and success?
Prerequisite(s):

BUS 102 | Corporate Responsibility and Ethics | 3 Credits
This course examines the biblical foundations of moral reasoning and the analysis of ethical issues that arise in a wide range of contemporary business practices, both domestically and globally. Having a corporate social responsibility means that businesses and organizations have ethical and societal responsibilities that extend beyond profit and economic returns; these responsibilities include workplace fairness, diversity, environmental care, and many others. This course is designed to cultivate thinking on biblical ethical issues, corporate social responsibility, and professional challenges encountered in business; students will be challenged to manage ethical issues and formulate their own standards of professional Christian integrity, gaining an appreciation for the role personal values play in developing effective business and organizational leadership.

Prerequisite(s):

BUS 200 | Foundations of Law and Business | 3 Credits

This course introduces students to the legal framework and intersection of business and the law, with particular attention to contracts and negotiable instruments. Extensive coverage of government regulations relating to the environment, consumer protection, hiring practices, and occupational safety of business; as well as an overview of torts, personal property, commercial paper, and secured transactions will be covered. There will include coverage of partnerships and corporations, bankruptcy, agency principles, insurance, real property, and estate matters.

Prerequisite(s):

BUS 201 | Foundations of Management | 3 Credits

This course surveys general management principles and theories and provides bases for understanding the basic knowledge and skills required for being an informed employee, an effective team member, and a successful manager in the contemporary work environment. Functions of management discussed include team leadership, risk management, organizational behavior, systems operations, and human resources. The course will also explore traditional (staffing, training, job evaluation, compensation, and benefits administration) and contemporary (organizational change, employee ownership, and cross-cultural and international considerations) issues related to the management of human resources; and the linkage between human resource management and business strategy. Lastly, will course will examine the demographic diversity of the U.S. labor force and the promises and challenges it presents to organization managers.

BUS 202 | Foundations of Marketing | 3 Credits

This course introduces and familiarizes students with the practice of marketing in a modern business environment. It takes as its starting point students’ everyday observations of marketing activity (e.g., advertisements and retailing) and explains the network of activities and concepts that guide these programs. Students will acquire an understanding of the marketing process: 1) Marketplace analysis organized around the 5 C’s (context, customers, company, collaborators, competition); 2) Marketing strategy using the STP (segmentation, targeting, positioning) framework; and 3) Implementation organized around the 4 P’s (product, promotion, price, place). The course project provides an opportunity to demonstrate creativity by developing a marketing plan for a business of your choice.

BUS 203 | Foundations of Finance | 3 Credits
This course introduces financial concepts and methods of analysis in the financial services industry. The time value of money and its relation to such concepts as net present value and internal rate of return; principles of valuation and financial markets; use of capital budgeting, management of cash flow, and working capital management will be of primary discussion. Other topics include—financing capital investments; how financial risk affects the cost of capital and helps determine the capital structure of corporations; and the interactions between investment and financial decisions. Considering the current landscape of global finance, ethical dilemmas will also be addressed, such as fiduciary duties, insider trading, financial reporting, customer deception, tax evasion, bank lending practices, and the influence of compensation schemes on society and its citizens.

BUS 204 | Foundations of Accounting | 3 Credits
This course combines financial and managerial accounting by introducing the theoretical structure of accounting, methods, and procedures necessary to achieve effective financial reporting; it includes—overview of the balance sheet, income statement, and statement of cash flows; complete treatment of the accounting cycle; asset, liability, and equity accounts; and introduction to consolidated financial statements. Furthermore, it includes an introduction to cost behavior, managerial decision models, cost and budgetary planning and control, standard costing, analysis of variance, job order and process costing systems, cost allocation, and responsibility accounting. Introduction to the new manufacturing environment, including activity-based costing.

BUS 301 | Social Entrepreneurship and Innovation | 3 Credits
The purpose of this course is to examine entrepreneurship as a mechanism for social change, economic development, and community wealth creation, particularly in an urban context. Specifically, this course will examine the concepts and practice of social entrepreneurship, through readings, class discussions, project assignments, and case studies engaging real-life issues within the College’s footprint. Objectives include learning how to define the social impact of a business in terms of under-served markets and learning the elements of developing (or creating) a social business model that is sustainable and scalable (i.e., that can have exponential growth and impact).

Prerequisite(s):

BUS 401 | Capstone Seminar I | 3 Credits
This course begins by revisiting the concept of Christian vocation, which was initially introduced to the student in Pathways to Success. Time will be spent reflecting on the student’s growing sense of vocation during their academic career at the college, and then will be guided in applying that sense of vocation to their present pursuits and to future professional or educational opportunities. This course combines the real-world benefits of an internship with the critical reflection provided by a seminar course through a project-based research group for a real-world business or organization, addressing complex strategic and management issues. Students will develop the ability to recognize, analyze, and define problems within and outside the business, to identify management choices, and to implement appropriate strategic action. The Capstone stresses assessment of the short- and long-term implications of management actions and uses a broad range of business skills.

Prerequisite(s):

BUS 402 | Capstone Seminar II | 3 Credits
A second semester of the Capstone Seminar combines the real-world benefits of an internship with the critical reflection provided by a seminar course through a project-based research group for a real-world business or organization, addressing complex strategic and management issues. Students will develop the ability to recognize, analyze, and define problems within and outside the business, to identify management choices, and to implement appropriate strategic action. The Capstone stresses assessment of the short- and long-term implications of management actions and uses a broad range of business skills.

Prerequisite(s):

CED 308 | Family Ministries in the Black Church | 3 Credits
This course provides an examination of the ways the church can minister to the needs of the various types of family structures: the single parent, the single person, the couple with no children, traditional families, and the parents of children of varying ages. The course is designed to explore the various kinds of ministries such as education, recreation, and counseling that will enhance the Christian life and educational experience of the varying types of family units.

CIS 100 | Introduction to Computers | 3 Credits
This course is intended to provide a hands-on introduction to computer hardware, operating systems, and application software (including word processing, electronic spreadsheets, presentation, and database software) to facilitate business productivity. The history of computers, Internet basics, current issues in technology that affect business, educational, and other modern settings are also studied.

Prerequisite(s): None

CIS 200 | Advanced Spreadsheet Applications | 3 Credits
This course is intended to provide hands-on advanced knowledge of spreadsheet applications concepts. Students will learn the various functions and commands of the spreadsheet and use it to analyze and evaluate data using formulas and functions, graphs, database capabilities, and external data.
Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of CIS 100 with a grade of “C” or better.

CIS 210 | Introduction to Information Systems | 3 Credits
This course is intended to provide students with a foundational understanding of information systems as they apply to the business and computer industry. Topics of study will include Business Information Systems, systems infrastructure, system security, business intelligence and Enterprise Information Systems, and system planning, development, and implementation.
Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of CIS 100 with a grade of “C” or better.

CIS 211 | Principles of Programming I: Python | 3 Credits
This course is designed to introduce students to the study of computer programming with an emphasis on problem solving utilizing algorithms and well-structured code. Additional topics include data types, functions, selections, objects, and classes.
Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of DSC 110 or CIS 210 with a grade of “C” or better.

CIS 212 | Principles of Programming II: Python | 3 Credits
This course is a continuation of the study of object-oriented computer programming using the Python language with an emphasis on problem solving utilizing well-structured code. Additional topics include methods, encapsulation, exception-handling, recursion, inheritance, polymorphism, and graphical user-interfaces.
Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of CIS 211 with a grade of “C” or better.

CIS 214 | Introduction to Web Development | 3 Credits
This course will provide students with a practical introduction to web development. By learning the basic skills needed to develop an interactive website, students will develop an understanding of the web development task and an appreciation of the importance of the Internet in both business and academic environments. Specific technical topics to be covered include XHTML, CSS, JavaScript, web server software, and search engine ranking strategies.
Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of CIS 100 with a grade of “C” or better.

CIS 220 | System Analysis and Design | 3 Credits
This course introduces students to the principles and techniques of systems analysis and design methods. Topics include System Development Life Cycle, data design, flowcharting, documentation, and systems implementation. The concepts and approaches of information systems models, such as data model and process model as well as physical design are also discussed.
Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of DSC 110 or CIS 210 with a grade of “C” or better.
CIS 221 | Principles of Programming I: Java | 3 Credits
This course is designed to introduce students to the study of computer programming using the Java language with an emphasis on problem solving utilizing algorithms and well-structured code. Additional topics include data types, functions, selections, objects, and classes.
Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of DSC 110 or CIS 210 with a grade of “C” or better.

CIS 222 | Principles of Programming II: Java | 3 Credits
This course is designed to introduce students to the study of computer programming with an emphasis on problem solving utilizing algorithms and well-structured code. Additional topics include data types, functions, selections, objects, and classes.
Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of CIS 221 with a grade of “C” or better.

CIS 225 | Mobile Application Programming | 3 Credits
This course is designed to introduce students to programming design and development for mobile applications. Topics include accessing device capabilities, industry standards, operating systems, and programming for mobile applications using an OS Software Development Kit (SDK).
Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of CIS 214 and Programming I with a grade of “C” or better.

CIS 310 | Database Design and Implementation | 3 Credits
This course is intended to introduce students to the concepts of database design and use. Topics covered include data models (relational and JSON), SQL query language, transactions, parallel data processing, and database as a service.
Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of DSC 110 or CIS 210 with a grade of “C” or better.

CIS 320 | Networking Concepts and Fundamentals | 3 Credits
This course is an introduction to computer networks that provides a theoretical and hands-on approach of local area networks, internetworks, and wide area networks. Topics covered include OSI Model, network topologies, network layers and protocols, network management, network security, cloud computing, and network media and access methods.
Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of CIS 220 with a grade of “C” or better.

CIS 330 | Internet Programming | 3 Credits
The course will provide students with a broad overview and understanding of the different technologies used to program for the Internet as complex enterprise applications integrate more sophisticated features to respond to the evolving requirements of doing business online. Topics covered include understanding how a web server works, configuring web servers, using databases for data storage and retrieval, understanding model-view-controller design, and using JavaScript for client-side programming.
Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of CIS 225 with a grade of “C” or better.

CIS 420 | Management Information Systems | 3 Credits
This course is intended to provide students with an understanding of a management information system and how to leverage it in business. Topics include Transaction Processing Systems, data and business intelligence, legal and ethical issues, and data communication and networks.
Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of CIS 220 with a “C” or better.

CIS 430 | Project Management | 3 Credits
This course is designed to introduce students to the concepts and key components of project management. Key topics include project integration, project scope management, project time and cost management, managing project teams, work breakdown structure (WBS), and project quality.
Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of CIS 420 with a grade of “C” or better.

CIS 440 | Occupational Internship | 3 Credits
This course is intended to provide students with an opportunity to build upon, apply, and refine skills and knowledge obtained throughout the CIS degree program. Students are expected to complete this internship under the supervision of a professional in the field. Internship must be approved by the Department Chair.
Prerequisite(s): Senior Classification and successful completion of CIS 420 or DSC 440 with a grade of “C” or better.

COM 100 | Public Speaking | 3 Credits
This course is an introduction to speech communication which emphasizes the practical skill of public speaking, including techniques to lessen speaker anxiety, and the use of visual aids to enhance speaker presentations. In this course, we will focus on ethical speech techniques as the speaker is trusted by their audience. The course’s goal is to prepare students for success in typical public speaking situations and to provide them with the basic principles of organization and research needed for effective speeches.
Prerequisite(s): None

COM 101 | Foundations of Communication | 3 Credits
This course explores the fundamental concepts and issues in (intercultural) communication. We will examine the complex relationship between culture and communication from different conceptual perspectives and consider the importance of context and power in intercultural interactions. In addition to learning theory and applying different approaches to the study of intercultural communication, this course asks that you consider your own cultural identities, values, beliefs, assumptions, worldviews, etc., through participation in class discussions. This course will help students develop their perspective and voice, embracing such factors as cultural background, race, class, gender, and sexuality.
Prerequisite(s): None
COM 102 | Interpersonal Skills | 3 Credits
This course invites students to explore their present communication skills and to improve their competency in communicating with other people. Through reading and participating in class exercises, students will examine the basic elements of interpersonal communication including critical thinking, self-concept, perception, listening, verbal and non-verbal expression, emotional expression, conversational skills, personal relationships, intercultural communication, and conflict resolution.
Prerequisite(s):

COM 103 | Conflict Communication and Management | 3 Credits
This course introduces students to conflict communication and management in an organizational context. Whether as a member of management, organizational consultant, human resource professional, communication practitioner, or just as a part of daily life, you will be required to manage conflict successfully. Conflict communication and management is a specialized communication skill requiring theoretical understanding of human interaction, decision-making, and organizational systems. That is, the nature and function of communication in organizational conflict management is shaped by the nature of the dispute, the power and status of the disputants, perceived outcomes, and—very importantly—whether or not the relationship is on-going.
Prerequisite(s):

COM 201 | Communication, Culture, and Community | 3 Credits
This service-learning course introduces students to a critical understanding of communication across the dimensions of race, ethnicity, nationality, ability, gender and age through a hands-on experience working with a community-based organization and prepares students seeking careers that focus on the ability to communicate effectively within and across cultures in a diverse society.
Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of COM 101 with a grade of “C” or better.

COM 202 | Race, Gender, and Media Representation | 3 Credits
This course focuses on the complex, changing, and dynamic relationships between dominant and underrepresented groups in society, the mass media, and broader social contexts. The course discusses media representation of particular racial, ethnic, and gender groups, contexts of media productions, and media use among underrepresented groups. The concepts of hegemony, power, social construction, and intersectionality are vital in understanding these relationships. The course connects to the field of sociology, in that it focuses on the everyday social uses of symbolic forms. This course aims to make students aware of, and sensitive to, some of the dynamics connected with media images, symbolic power, and the production of meaning in today’s world.
Prerequisite(s):
COM 203 | Interpersonal Communication in Theatre Performance | 3 Credits
This course applies knowledge in interpersonal communication with performances in the American theatre that focuses on dynamic live interaction and live performance. It uses and emphasizes black theatre monologues, speeches, plays, etc. to stress the importance of interpersonal/intrapersonal intelligences in relation to self-concept, self-evaluation, face work, and empathy in diverse relationships and interactions in family and social relationships.
Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of COM 102 with a grade of “C” or better.

COM 204 | Group-Building and Cultural Competency | 3 Credits
This course introduces students to the basics of working together, reducing wasted time, lessening conflict, and influencing interactions in a positive way through awareness of oneself as a cultural being. Students will increase their cross-cultural awareness, knowledge, and skills to respond appropriately to problems and opportunities of both domestic and international demographic changes and globalizations.
Prerequisite(s):

COM 211 | Business & Professional Speaking | 3 Credits
This course will provide students with essential skills for effective communication. Emphasis will be on speaking: In various settings, impromptu, and with preparation.
Prerequisite(s):

COM 301 | Urban-Suburban Communication | 3 Credits
This course introduces students to the relationships between communication media in urban and suburban settings. Students will analyze urban and suburban communication patterns, contemporary visions of the community and the impact of communication coverage and representation within urban and suburban communities. The study of urban communication begins with the notion that cities are inherently places and products of communication, and they provide meeting spaces for interaction and/or observation. However, urban America and suburban American are facing a critical time as new forms of communication allow the transfer of information from urban centers to suburbia, and from suburban comforts to the urban core— thus allowing each meeting space to develop and perpetuate new perceptions of the other.
Prerequisite(s):

COM 302 | Latino Culture and Communication | 3 Credits
This course introduces students to the relationships among Latino cultures, communication, and institutions. Students in this course will develop their capacity to communicate with and learn from Latino populations in the workplace, in community situations, and other sites of engagement.
Prerequisite(s):
COM 303 | Asian Culture and Communication | 3 Credits
This course introduces students to proficiencies across the full range of language skills within a cultural frame of reference reflective to the richness of the Asian culture and language. This course engages students in an exploration of both contemporary and historical communication styles of Asian cultures.

Prerequisite(s):

COM 304 | Topics in Communication | 3 Credits
This course provides selected topics of contemporary interest taught by a communication professional active in the field. Topics vary and may be substantive, theoretical, or methodological.

Prerequisite(s):

COM 305 | Hip Hop in Communication Studies | 3 Credits
This course will trace the history of Hip Hop culture from its origins in 1970s Bronx, New York to its contemporary trends in media and communication to stress its impact on American culture as one of the most significant cultural and commercial movements in American history. This course emphasizes the solution of problems, and mathematical principles and procedures. Content includes, but is not limited to, decimal and fractional ideas, number theory, the real number system, and numeration systems and bases are all include the utilization of manipulatives, group projects, reflective writing, and any available technology will be utilized in this course.

Prerequisite(s): GPA 2.75 or ACT Math 19 or, Praxis CASE 5733-150 or faculty approval.

EDU 313 | Diversity Awareness | 3 Credits
This course teaches students how to manage their classrooms effectively by utilizing appropriate discipline strategies, classroom organization, and classroom management techniques using technology before student teaching. It is intended to prepare students for successful classroom management in all school settings.

Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of EDU 201 and EDU 213 with a grade of “C” or better.

EDU 314 | Classroom and Learning Management | 3 Credits
This course teaches students how to manage their classrooms effectively by utilizing appropriate discipline strategies, classroom organization, and classroom management techniques using technology before student teaching. It is intended to prepare students for successful classroom management in all school settings.

Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of EDU 201 and EDU 213 with a grade of “C” or better.

EDU 320 | Assessment of Teaching and Learning | 3 Credits
The course is an introduction to assessments, examinations, and measures utilized in educational contexts. Students will understand the steps for improving and authentically assessing student learning. Students will gain knowledge of how to design, administer, and interpret various evaluation measures. Students will learn the skills necessary for choosing, using, diagnosing, assessing, and reporting the outcomes of both formal and informal measurement procedures. Admission to TEP required.

Prerequisite(s):

EJS 200 | Introduction to Solar Energy | 3 Credits
This course offers a basic education in solar technology, not only physics and mechanics of photovoltaic (PV) applications but also the history, politics, and economics of the expanding solar industry. During the second half of the course, students will engage in experiential learning, collaborating with local solar installers to gain hands-on knowledge and skills and potentially begin working as apprentices to help solarize the Simmons campus.

Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of ENG 101 with a grade of “C” or better.

ELA 201 | Career Pathway & Portfolio Management | 3 Credits
This course is designed to help you discover your many identities, set meaningful academic and career goals, develop essential skills such as information literacy and critical thinking skills, explore career options and develop essential skills such as networking, and engage in academic behaviors and study strategies that will help you meet with success.

Prerequisite(s): None

ELA 202 | Group and Organizational Behavior | 3 Credits

HIS 202 | Western Civilization II | 3 Credits
The course emphasizes the study and interpretation of select primary documents with a view to understanding them in their historical context along with secondary source readings.
Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of ENG 102 with a grade of “C” or better.

HIS 203 | American History | 3 Credits
This course provides a brief survey of American history from the founding of the first colonies to the present, with emphasis on key political and cultural developments that shape a unified American civilization.
Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of ENG 102 with a grade of “C” or better.

HIS 204 | History of Christianity I – The Early Church to 1500 | 3 Credits
This course provides a study of the history of Christianity from its inception through the Middle Ages and Renaissance. Particular attention will be given to key theological developments as reflected in the Seven Ecumenical Councils as well as Medieval concepts of grace and sacraments in the Great Church and renewal movements within the Western Church that paved the way for the Reformation.
Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of ENG 102 with a grade of “C” or better.

HIS 205 | History of Christianity II – The Church in the Modern Period | 3 Credits
This course provides a study of the history of Western Christianity from the Protestant Reformation to the present. Particular attention will be given to doctrinal developments in the Reformed, Lutheran, and Arminian/Wesleyan Traditions as well as the rise of theological liberalism, fundamentalism, neo-orthodoxy, and evangelicalism. Key Roman Catholic developments from the Councils of Trent and Vatican I and II will also be studied.
Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of ENG 102 with a grade of “C” or better.

HIS 206 | Black Church History | 3 Credits
This course is designed to provide students with an understanding of black church history, progression, spirituality, and evolution into its existence today. This course will also explore the role of the church in black culture, society, Christian education, pastoral care, and worship.
Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of ENG 102 with a grade of “C” or better.
HIS 207 | African American History | 3 Credits
This course provides a study of the role and contributions of African Americans in United States history their hardships and succession toward equal rights.
Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of ENG 102 with a grade of “C” or better.

HIS 208 | African American Experience | 3 Credits
This course will provide a brief survey of African American History. Students will discover the integrity, autonomy and agency of Africans that has been overlooked in most historical literature.
Prerequisite(s): ENG 102

HIS 301 | History of American Christianity | 3 Credits
The course provides a study of the development of Christianity in America from the Colonial period to the present. Attention is given to significant developments in the black church.
Prerequisite(s):

HIS 303 | The Ancient Near East | 3 Credits
This course provides a study of the history and literature of the intertestamental period. Attention is given to the histories and cultures of the Jews, Greeks and the Romans and the development of various politico-religious parties that include the rise of the synagogue, the literature of Josephus, Philo, the Apocrypha, the Pseudepigrapha and the Dead Sea Scrolls.
Prerequisite(s):

HIS 405 | African American History – Special Topics | 3 Credits
This course deals with the history of Blacks from 1619 to the present with emphasis on the background of African culture. Special emphasis is given to such major figures as Frederick Douglas, Malcolm X, W.E.B. Dubois, Booker T. Washington, Martin Luther King, Jr., and a myriad of other Americans of African descent who have etched their names in the stones of greatness upon which America now stands.
Prerequisite(s):

HIS 406 | World Religions | 3 Credits
This course provides an historical, critical, and comparative study of the major living religions of the world.
Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of PHI 102 with a grade of “C” or better.

IDS 200 | Foundations of Interdisciplinary Studies | 3 Credits
This course introduces students to the principles and methodologies of interdisciplinary studies, allowing them to develop critical thinking and problem-solving skills applicable to multiple disciplines.
Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of ENG 102 with a grade of “C” or better.
IDS 201 | Introduction to Global Citizenship and Diversity | 3 Credits
This course explores the concepts of global citizenship and diversity, encouraging students to engage with diverse cultures, perspectives, and global issues.
Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of IDS 200 with a grade of “C” or better.

IDS 401 | Experiential Learning Special Topics | 3 Credits
This course offers experiential learning opportunities, allowing students to apply their knowledge and skills in real-world settings. Through hands-on experiences, students gain practical insights and make meaningful contributions to their chosen field.
Prerequisite(s): Senior Classification

IDS 470 | Interdisciplinary Capstone | 3 Credits
In this culminating course, students integrate knowledge and skills from various disciplines to tackle complex real-world problems. Emphasis is placed on collaborative work and the application of interdisciplinary approaches to address social justice issues.
Prerequisite(s): Senior Classification

MAT 101 | Contemporary Math | 4 Credits
This course is designed to survey important ideas and practical applications in mathematics. The course provides students with an appreciation of how to use tables, graphs, and equations, as well as solve equations, linear functions and inequalities, systems of linear equations and inequalities, quadratic equations and functions, exponent properties, and polynomial and rational expressions. Particular emphasis is placed on achieving student proficiency in the application of fundamental algebraic concepts. A greater emphasis is placed on mathematical problem-solving skills that can be applied in everyday settings. This course must be taken in conjunction with the required lab component.
Prerequisite(s): None

MAT 101L | Contemporary Math Lab | 0 Credits
This course is the lab component to the MAT 101 Contemporary Math course and must be taken in conjunction with the lecture.
Prerequisite(s):

MAT 111 | College Algebra | 4 Credits
This course will primarily cover intermediate topics in algebra. Some topics include functions, quadratics, polynomial functions, rational functions, inverse functions, exponential functions, and logarithmic functions.
Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of MAT 101 with a grade of “C” or better

MAT 111L | College Algebra Lab | 0 Credits
This course is the lab component to the MAT 111 College Algebra course and must be taken in conjunction with the lecture.

Prerequisite(s):

MAT 112 | Precalculus with Trigonometry | 3 Credits
This course is a continuation covered in college algebra. It will cover advanced topics in Algebra as well as serve as an introduction to trigonometry. Topics include polynomial rationale, exponential and logarithmic functions; trigonometric functions, identities, equations, and application.

MAT 120 | Elementary Statistics | 3 Credits
This course will primarily cover beginning and intermediate topics in statistics. Topics include Sampling, Descriptive Statistics, Probability, Normal Distribution, Confidence Intervals, Hypothesis Testing, Chi-Square Tests, Linear Regression and Correlation, F Distribution, and ANOVA. This is a non-calculus statistics course, and it does not count towards a mathematics major.

Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of MAT 101 with a grade of “C” or better.

MAT 201 | Calculus I | 4 Credits
An introduction to differential and integral calculus of a single variable. Topics include limits, continuity, the definition of the derivative, differentiation rules and applications, Riemann sums, definite and indefinite integrals.

Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of MAT 112 with a grade of “C” or better

MAT 210 | Calculus II | 3 Credits
This course is a continuation of Calculus I. It will focus on integral calculus and infinite series. Topics include techniques and applications of integration, parametric equations, polar coordinates, sequences and series, and power series.

Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of MAT 201 with a grade of “C” or better

MAT 220 | Calculus III | 3 Credits
This multivariate calculus course is the final course in the introductory calculus sequence. Topics include vectors and vector-valued functions, differentiation of functions of several variables, multiple integrals, and vector calculus.

Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of MAT 210 with a grade of “C” or better

MAT 300 | Introduction to Higher Math | 3 Credits
This course provides an introduction to concepts which are essential for all higher mathematics courses. Emphasis is placed on proof techniques and proof writing. Topics include basic logic, basic set theory, functions, equivalence relations, number systems, countability, sequences and their convergence.

Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of MAT 210 with a grade of “C” or better or instructor approval.

MAT 310 | Linear Algebra | 3 Credits
An introductory course in linear algebra. Topics include systems of linear equations, vectors, matrices, vector spaces, eigenvalues, linear transformation.

Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of MAT 210 with a grade of “C” or better or instructor approval.

MAT 320 | Differential Equations | 3 Credits
An introduction to differential equations, including techniques to solve them and their applications. Topics include: first order equations, linear second order equations, linear higher order equations, and Laplace transforms.

MAT 330 | Statistical Data Analysis | 3 Credits
An introduction to statistical concepts with an emphasis on computation and calculation. Statistical software will be heavily used. Topics include: probability distributions, hypothesis testing, inference for two or more population means, one-way and two-way analysis of variance (ANOVA), linear regression with one or more independent variables, multiple regression.

Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of MAT 201 with a grade of “C” or better or instructor approval.

MAT 401 | Modern Algebra I | 3 Credits
A proof-based course in abstract or modern algebra. Topics include: proofs, sets, equivalence relations, induction, introduction to group theory, cyclic groups, permutation groups, cosets, and LaGrange’s Theorem.

Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of MAT 300 with a grade of “C” or better.

MAT 402 | Modern Algebra II | 3 Credit
A continuation of MAT 401. Topics include: More group theory, Sylow’s theorems, finite abelian groups, ring theory, integral domains, fields of quotients, homomorphisms, ideals, quotient rings, P.I.D.s, U.F.D.s, polynomial ring, and field theory.

Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of MAT 401 with a grade of “C” or better.

MAT 410 | Real Analysis I | 3 Credits
A proof-based introduction to real analysis. Topics include: the real number system, sequences, series, limits, continuity, and the derivative.

Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of MAT 300 with a grade of “C” or better or instructor approval.

MAT 411 | Real Analysis II | 3 Credits
A continuation of MAT 410. Topics include Riemann integration, sequences and series of functions, uniform convergence, metric spaces.

MAT 420 | Probability Theory | 3 Credits
An introduction to the theory and applications of probability. Topics include probability spaces, probability distributions, discrete and continuous random variables, moments, moment generating functions, joint densities, the Central Limit Theorem.

Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of MAT 220 with a grade of “C” or better.

MAT 425 | Mathematical Models in Operations Research | 3 Credits
Deterministic and probabilistic mathematical modeling of real-world problems. Topics include Linear and nonlinear programming, Markov chains, queuing theory, inventory models, Markov decision processes.

Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of MAT 420 with a grade of “C” or better.

MAT 430 | Mathematical Statistics | 3 Credits
Introduction to mathematical theory of statistics. Topics include sampling, estimation theory, testing hypothesis, two sample cases, analysis of variance, regression analysis, and Bayesian inference.

MAT 440 | Senior Capstone Project | 3 Credits
The Senior Capstone Project is designed to be the culminating course for the Applied Mathematics major. Students utilize the knowledge and skills gained in previous trans disciplinary courses, but especially in mathematics and data science courses. Students are required to perform an in-depth investigation of current topics or research questions and provide a written report for the same under the guidance of a faculty advisor. Papers must integrate Biblical/ethical considerations in the research design and process. This course fulfills a Biblical-ethical requirement.

Prerequisite(s): Senior Classification

MLK 200 | M. L. King’s Lived Theology | 3 Credits
This course focuses on MLK’s “lived theology” because his belief system drew not only from the Bible and contemporary theologians but from the lived experience of the Black freedom movement. The course study will be grounded in the two major theological traditions that he furthered: The Black social gospel and the philosophy of personalism.

Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of ENG 102 with a grade of “C” or better.

MUA120 | Minor Applied I | 1 Credit
Minor Applied I focuses on the study of a secondary instrument or voice in a private instruction environment. In this class the student will study all major scales, beginning technical studies and etudes, and beginner level solos.

Prerequisite(s):

MUA121 | Minor Applied II | 1 Credit
Minor Applied II is a continuation of MUA120. In this class, students will study all relative minor scales, intermediate studies and etudes, and intermediate solos on a secondary instrument.

Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of MUA120 with a grade of “C” or better.

MUA161 | Major Applied I | 1 Credit
Major Applied I is the intensive study of all major scales, chromatic scales, intermediate technical studies and etudes, and intermediate solos on a student’s primary instrument. Students will have to perform in a performance seminar.

Prerequisite(s):

MUA162 | Major Applied II | 1 Credit
Major Applied II is a continuation of MUA161. The student will have intensive study relative minor scales, intermediate technical studies and etudes, and intermediate solos on the student’s primary instrument. Students will have to perform in a performance seminar.

Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of MUA 161 with a grade of “C” or better.

MUA 261 | Major Applied III | 1 Credit
Major Applied III is a continuation of MUA261. The student will have intensive study on harmonic minor scales, intermediate to advanced technical studies and etudes, and intermediate to advanced solos on the student’s primary instrument. Students will have to perform in a performance seminar.

Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of MUA 162 with a grade of “C” or better.

MUA 262 | Major Applied IV | 1 Credit
Major Applied IV is a continuation of MUA261. The student will have intensive study on melodic minor scales, intermediate to advanced technical studies and etudes, and intermediate to advanced solos on the student’s primary instrument. Students will have to perform in a performance seminar.

Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of MUA 261 with a grade of “C” or better.

MUA 361 | Major Applied V | 1 Credit
Major Applied V is a continuation of MUA262. The student will have intensive study on all major and minor scales, advanced technical studies and etudes, and intermediate to advanced solos on the student’s primary instrument. Students will have to perform in a performance seminar.

Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of MUA 262 with a grade of “C” or better.

MUA 362 | Major Applied VI | 1 Credit
Major Applied VI is a continuation of MUA262. The student will have intensive study advanced technical studies and etudes, and advanced solos on the student’s primary instrument. Students will have to perform in a performance seminar.
Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of MUA361 with a grade of “C” or better.

MUC 110 | Class Piano I | 1 Credit
Class Piano I will focus specifically on the basics of piano performance including technique and notation. This class is designed to acclimate beginners to the piano.
Prerequisite(s):

MUC 111 | Class Piano II | 1 Credit
Class Piano II is a continuation of Class Piano I. Each lesson is a one-on-one session and focuses on proper technique, standard performance practices, etiquette, and all other aspects of being a solo piano performer.
Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of MUC 110 with a grade of “C” or better.

MUI 204 | Music Publishing and Copyright | 3 Credits
Music Publishing and Copyright will explore the history, laws and processes involved in copyright law concerning Music publishing.
Prerequisite(s):

MUI 499 | Senior Project in Music (Senior Recital) | 3 Credits
Senior Project in Music is the culminating performance for a student in the Music Performance program. Successful fulfillment of a senior recital is mandatory for graduation. The student will prepare and perform 50 minutes to one hour of intermediate to advanced solos on their major instrument or voice. Accompanists will be assigned to work with students if necessary. Proper performance attire will be mandatory.
Prerequisite(s):

MUP 381 | Concert Band | 1 Credit
Concert Band will give the class an appreciation of the historical significance of concert band as an art form, through the rehearsal and performance of music of various styles and genres and building an understanding of how it relates to other contemporary music styles. The class will explore the influence of concert band on other modern American musical styles. Participation in several concerts during the semester is mandatory. Proper performance attire will be required. This class can be repeated for credit multiple times.
Prerequisite(s):

MUP 382 | College Marching Band | 1 Credit
The primary goal of this course is to assist students in the discovery of the historical and cultural significance of marching band as an art form within the HBCU community, thereby understanding how it relates to other contemporary music styles. The student will understand and appreciate the influence of the marching band on other modern American musical styles and at the completion of this course the student should have an increased understanding and appreciation for this art form. The student will be a part of a performing ensemble, which is a requirement to successfully completing the course, and will be an active performer at school events, and outside performances. The course is designed to create a learning environment that encourages positive social interaction, active engagement in learning, and self-motivation. *This course will not serve as fulfillment of required ensembles for the music performance degree.

Prerequisite(s): None

MUP 384 | Jazz Ensemble | 3 Credits
This course is designed to study the conception of jazz music as Black America music and the performance techniques employed throughout its illustrious history. Emphasis is placed on performing standard jazz repertoire composed by jazz masters.

Prerequisite(s): None

MUP 386 | Concert Choir | 1 Credit
Concert Choir will give the class an appreciation of the historical significance of concert choir as an art form, through the rehearsal and performance of music of various styles and genres and building an understanding of how it relates to other contemporary music styles. The class will study proper vocal techniques and common practices. Participation in several concerts during the semester is mandatory. Proper performance attire will be required. This class can be repeated for credit multiple times.

Prerequisite(s):

MUS 112 | Music Theory I | 3 Credits
Music Theory I focuses on a review of basic music theory and builds on this knowledge. In this class, students will also gain skills in interval and triad construction and analysis and building of chords.

Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of MUS100 with a grade of “C” or better.

MUS113 | Aural Skills I | 1 Credit
Aural Skills I focuses on the practical application of the content in Music Theory I.

Prerequisite(s):

MUS 114 | Music Theory II | 3 Credits
Music Theory II is a continuation of MUS112. In this class, the student will review construction and analysis of intervals and Triads and study the construction and analysis of triads and root position chords.

Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of MUS112 with a grade of “C” or better.

MUS 115 | Aural Skills II | 1 Credit
Aural Skills II focuses on the practical application of the content in Music Theory II.

Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of MUS112 and MUS113 with a grade of “C” or better.

MUS 100 | Fundamentals of Music | 3 Credit
Fundamentals of Music will focus on the explanation and design of western music. This course is designed to align with the expectations of general music theory and practice and covers music theory from the basics.

Prerequisite(s):

MUS 130 | Music Appreciation | 3 Credits
This course is a study of the musical aesthetics, core values, and specific attributes that comprise the creation of Black Music in America.

Prerequisite(s): None

MUS 212 | Music Theory III | 3 Credits
Music Theory III is a continuation of MUS114. This course will review the construction of chords, all inversions and begin to explore four-part harmony.

Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of MUS114 with a grade of “C” or better.

MUS 213 | Aural Skills III | 1 Credit
Aural Skills III focuses on the practical application of the content in Music Theory III.

Prerequisite(s):

MUS 214 | Music Theory IV | 3 Credits
Music Theory IV is a continuation of MUS212. This course will study the construction and analysis of four-part harmonic writing and explore form and analysis in musical composition.

Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of MUS212 with a grade of “C” or better.

MUS 215 | Aural Skills IV | 1 Credit
Aural Skills IV focuses on the practical application of the content in Music Theory IV.

Prerequisite(s):

MUS 321 | Survey of Music History I | 3 Credits
Survey of Music History I is part one of the study of music history. The class will explore music from the Gregorian Chant to the Classical Music time period and will focus both on secular as well as sacred music history. (This course meets the Biblical-Ethical Requirement)

Prerequisite(s):

MUS 322 | Survey of Music History II | 3 Credits
Survey of Music History II is a continuation of MUS321. It is part two of the study of music history. The class will explore the history of music from the Romantic Period to Modern Music, including World music. This course will focus both on secular as well as sacred music history. (This course meets the Biblical-Ethical Requirement)
Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of MUS321 with a grade of “C” or better.

MUS 341 | Voice Class | 1 Credit
Voice class is the student of the techniques required to be a proficient singer. The class will include the elements of singing, such as breathing, diction, posture voice ranges, and various foreign languages.
Prerequisite(s):

MUS 342 | Woodwind Class | 1 Credit
Woodwind class will assist students in the discovery of the differences in the musical instruments in the Woodwind family. The class will be able to identify and categorize woodwind instruments by sound and sight and demonstrate the proper technique for producing a sound on each of the instruments in the woodwind family.
Prerequisite(s):

MUS 343 | Brass Class | 1 Credit
Brass class will assist students in the discovery of the differences in the musical instruments in the Brass family. The class will be able to identify and categorize brass instruments by sound, sight, and range, and demonstrate the proper technique for producing a sound on each of the instruments in the brass family.
Prerequisite(s):

MUS 344 | Percussion Class | 1 Credit
Percussion class will assist students in the discovery of the differences in the musical instruments in the Percussion family. The class will be able to identify and categorize percussion instruments by sound and sight, as well as method of producing sound, and demonstrate the proper technique for producing a sound on each of the instruments in the percussion family.
Prerequisite(s):

MUS 352 | Conducting | 1 Credit
Conducting focuses on the specific skills needed for conducting an instrumental or vocal ensemble. Each session focuses on proper technique, standard performance practices, etiquette as well as other aspects of being a vocal or instrumental conductor.
Prerequisite(s):

NTS 101 – 102 | Survey of the New Testament I & II | 3 – 3 Credits
The first part of this course deals with the principles of interpretation, the formation of the canon, the New Testament World, the Gospels, and the historical ministry of Jesus. The second part of this course deals with the development of Christianity; Pauline and Post-Pauline developments; selected passages for interpretation from Acts through Revelation.
Prerequisite(s):

NTS 202 | Synoptic Gospels | 3 Credits
This course provides an exegetical study of the Gospels of Matthew, Mark and Luke from a historical-critical perspective; some attention will be given to problems concerning the Gospels. Attention will be given to the life, person, teachings and acts of Jesus and the application of these truths to contemporary times.

Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of NTS101, NTS102 and THS140 with a grade of “C” or better.

NTS 301 | Gospel of John | 3 Credits
This course provides an exegetical study of the fourth Gospel with attention to the presentation of Jesus as the God-Man; the miracles and signs of Jesus; the passion and resurrection of Jesus; and the application of these contemporary times.

Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of NTS101, NTS102 and THS140 with a grade of “C” or better.

NTS 303 | New Testament Theology | 3 Credits
This course provides a study in the theological interpretation of the New Testament with consideration given to its major doctrines and the application of these contemporary times.

Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of NTS101, NTS102, THS140, THS201, and THS202 with a grade of “C” or better.

NTS 304 | Romans | 3 Credits
This course provides an exegetical study of the doctrines of human sin, the righteousness of God, and the justification by grace through faith in Jesus Christ. Practical application of the doctrines will be made.

Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of NTS101, NTS102, and THS140 with a grade of “C” or better.

NTS 306 | General Epistles | 3 Credits
This course provides a survey of Hebrews, James, and the epistles of Peter, John, and Jude considering their backgrounds, life situations and literature with attention given to their relevance for contemporary Christian living.

Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of NTS101, NTS102, and THS140 with a grade of “C” or better.

NTS 403 | Prison Epistles | 3 Credits
This course provides an exposition of the epistles of Ephesians, Philippians, Colossians, and Philemon with emphasis on the important teachings of the church and the ethical behavior of Christians.

Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of NTS101, NTS102, THS140 with a grade of “C” or better.

NTS 404 | Parables of Jesus | 3 Credits
This course provides an exegetical study of the parabolic teachings of Jesus with reference to their original meaning and application to contemporary society. Attention will be given to the definition and nature of parables, the reason Jesus taught in parables, and how parables are to be interpreted.
Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of NTS101, NTS102, and THS140 with a grade of “C” or better.

NTS 406 | Pastoral Epistles | 3 Credits
This course provides an in-depth study of the epistles of I and II Timothy and Titus with emphasis on the qualifications and responsibilities of Church leaders.
Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of NTS101, NTS102, and THS140 with a grade of “C” or better.

NTS 408 | The Literary Study of Scripture from the Margins | 3 Credits
This course introduces students to basic concepts of literary analysis, such as plot, character development, etc. After learning these concepts, books, and passages from the Hebrew and Christian Scriptures are interpreted and analyzed theologically. A special emphasis will look at aspects of cultural interpretation and marginalized readers and communities.
Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of NTS101, NTS102, and THS140 with a grade of “C” or better.

NTS 499 | Special Studies in the New Testament | 3 Credits
This course provides an intensive and special study of a specific book in the New Testament canon not covered by individual text studies already listed. A student must be at least classified as a junior and or receive special permission from the Academic Dean before being admitted to this class. The topics will vary, and students can receive up to six (6) hours credit for this course selection for two different special studies.
Prerequisite(s): NTS101, NTS102, THS140, NTS301, NTS302, or permission of the instructor.

OTS 101 – 102 | Survey of the Old Testament I & II | 3 – 3 Credits
This is a two-part course. The first part is an introduction to the Old Testament from Genesis to the Book of Kings. The second part of the course is an introduction to the prophetic writings in addition to the poetry and wisdom literature. Attention will be given to the history, theology, and interpretation of the Old Testament text.
Prerequisite(s):

OTS 303 | Studies in the Pentateuch | 3 Credits
This course provides a critical survey of Genesis through Deuteronomy giving attention to the Creation epic, Exodus, the development of Hebrew Law and other major events and movements in the life of primitive Israel. Major issues such as authorship and contemporary interpretation and application will be considered.
Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of OTS101, OTS102, and THS140 with a grade of “C” or better.

OTS 304 | Old Testament Theology | 3 Credits
This course provides a study in the Theology of the Old Testament as it speaks of God, Man, Sin, History and Salvation. Some attention will be given to less systematic approaches to Old Testament Theology as it relates to major themes such as “Covenant” and others. Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of OTS 303 and THS 202 with a grade of “C” or better.

OTS 307 | Former Prophets | 3 Credits
This course provides a study in the early history of Israel as a nation from the period of conquest, occupation, and settlement in Canaan to the fall of the kingdoms. Significant personalities in the conquest, judge and monarchical periods will be highlighted. Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of OTS 101, OTS 102 and THS 140 with a grade of “C” or better.

OTS 308 | Psalms | 3 Credits
This course provides a study of the book of Psalms as a statement of living faith in the worship life of Israel. Strong emphasis will be placed on the content, origin, classification, interpretation, and contemporary liturgical use of the Psalter. Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of OTS 101, OTS 102, THS 140, THS 201, and THS 202 with a grade of “C” or better.

OTS 401 | Job and the Wisdom Literature | 3 Credits
This course provides an examination of the structure and content of the Book of Job with attention to the theological issues it presents with a view to a contemporary interpretation. In addition, a survey of the major themes of Hebrew Wisdom literature and their didactic use. Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of OTS 101, OTS 102 and THS 140 with a grade of “C” or better.

OTS 404 | Minor Prophets | 3 Credits
This course provides a study in the prophets Daniel through Malachi with primary focus given to the prophetic message of each prophet, its historical context and theological content. Some attention will be given to the rise of apocalyptic literature. Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of OTS 101, OTS 102, and THS 140 with a grade of “C” or better.

OTS 499 | Special Studies in the Old Testament | 3 Credits
This course provides an intensive and special study of a specific book in the Old Testament canon not covered by individual text studies already listed. A student must be at least classified as a junior and or receive special permission from the Academic Dean before being admitted to this class. The topics will vary, and students can receive up to six hours credit for this course selection for two different special studies. Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of OTS 404, OTS 301, OTS 302, with a grade of “C” or better.

PHI 102 | Introduction to Philosophy | 3 Credits
This course is an intro to the basic problems in philosophy with an emphasis on representative philosophical sources as a basis for interpreting fundamental issues and problems of reflective thinking.
Prerequisite(s): None

PHI 200 | Critical Thinking and Moral Decisions | 3 Credits
This course provides a study on identification, formulation, and evaluation of both inductive and deductive patterns of reasoning. Consideration of topics such as probability, reasoning about causes, fallacies, foundations of argument, and the issues in logical theory.
Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of ENG 102 with a grade of “C” or better.

Prerequisite(s):

PSY 330 | Cognition and Learning | 3 Credits
This course surveys the major theories and models of human learning and processes of human cognition, including acquisition, organization, and use of knowledge. Processes involved in learning and cognition, including perception, memory, thinking, and language acquisition.

Prerequisite(s):

PSY 430 | Organizational Psychology | 3 Credits
This course examines the methodology and content of Industrial and Organizational Psychology (I/O) Psychology. This is the branch of psychology that examines people in the workplace and all the factors that affect how people behave at work. Primary concepts include individual, group, and organizational issues that enhance the understanding of the world of healthcare and research findings involved in the study of how people behave, think about, influence, and interact with each other at work, with an emphasis on factors that affect job performance. This course is designed for health information management majors.

Prerequisite(s):

PSY 440 | Senior Capstone Project | 3 Credits
The Senior Capstone Project is designed to be the culminating course for the Applied Psychology major. Students utilize the knowledge and skills gained in previous trans disciplinary courses, but especially in psychology courses. Students are required to perform an in-depth investigation of current topics or research questions and provide a written report for the same under the guidance of a faculty advisor. Papers must integrate Biblical/ethical considerations in the research design and process, and there will be considerable focus upon one’s Christian sense of vocation as the student considers how to utilize their new-found knowledge and abilities to be an “agent of change” beyond their college experience. This course fulfills a Biblical-ethical requirement.

Prerequisite(s):

PSY 450 | Biology and Behavior | 3 Credits
This introductory course provides a survey of neuroscience, including basic neuroanatomy, neural and synaptic transmission, and the neural mechanisms underlying normal and abnormal behavior. Attention will be given to the biopsychology and treatments for substance abuse.

Prerequisite(s):

REL 150 | Name It to Shame It: Data and the Sin of Structural Racism | 3 Credits
This course clarifies theologically and sociologically what is meant by "structural racism" and examines the various ways it manifests itself. This is done through an examination of history and the present day. Various forms of structural racism (such as housing and labor discrimination, and wealth and educational gaps) are examined, and students practice finding data that sheds light on these phenomena, and then practice using that data to critique structural racism and to lay bare its impact.

Prerequisite(s): None

REL 317 | 20th Century Black Religious Thought | 3 Credits
This course explores Howard Thurman as a 20th Century HBCU inspiration and shaper of today’s Black religion and activism. The course offers an opportunity to study his life and times, his impact on the Black church, on Black life in America, and particularly on the civil rights movement. Other areas of significance such as his mystical spirituality, his recommendations for ethical living as a Black person in the United States, and his books will be explored.
Prerequisites(s): Successful completion of ENG 102 and PHI 200 with a grade of “C” or better.

SCI 101 | Life Science | 3 Credits
This course provides an understanding of structural dynamic processes as they pertain to living systems. Areas of importance will be biological principles, genetics, cell structure, ecology, plant, and animal kingdoms.
Prerequisite(s): None

SCI 102 | Earth Science | 3 Credits
This course provides a study of the atmosphere, development, and uniqueness of earth. Students will examine the solar system, the weather, climate, and the geological frameworks of the land in our world.
Prerequisite(s): None

SCI 103 | Environmental Science | 3 Credits
This course is an introduction to the global physical environment. The overarching topics of this course focuses on the development and interactions of Earth’s atmosphere, hydrosphere, lithosphere, and biosphere while emphasizing energy, material cycles, and global change. Topics such as the relationships between humans and the environment with topics pertinent to multiple disciplines such as global climate change, modification of our environment, resource use, land use planning, pollution, and energy; as well as questions of global sustainability and human roles as stewards.
Additionally, given the nature of the course, it will inherently cover recent news, social media, and other topics found in popular culture to which students are exposed.
Prerequisite(s): None

SOC 101 | Foundations of Sociology | 3 Credits
This course is designed to place sociology's development as a social science in the evolution of Western thought; it will also cover the elements of social scientific thinking. Major emphasis will be given to the analysis of culture, social structure, socialization, institutions, social inequality, and social change. This course will also include a study of the basic terminology, concepts, and approaches in sociology with attention given to the analysis of social groups and application of sociological concepts to the understanding of social systems.
Prerequisite(s):

SOC 102 | Race, Ethnicity, and Gender in America | 3 Credits
This course explores race, ethnicity, and gender as factors of social differentiation in a number of Western societies, with particular attention to America. It studies the ethnoracial and gender systems operating in American society and examines their institutional and interpersonal dynamics. Lastly, it compares ethno-racial and gender systems in order to arrive at empirical generalizations about race/ethno-relations in the Americas.

Prerequisite(s): Completion of SOC 101 with a grade “C” or higher.

SOC 103 | Theories of Sociological Thought | 3 Credits

This course examines the nature of theory and reviews major sociological theories, especially structural-functionalism, conflict theory, exchange theory and interactionism. Special attention is given to leading figures representing the above schools of thought. The course begins with a brief overview of social theory, exploring the distinct contributions of sociological analysis, as compared to other disciplines. It devotes considerable attention to the scholarship of sociology’s founding thinkers, studying their work from multiple perspectives: historical, methodological, topical and analytical. The second half of the class is more contemporary. While retaining many of the analytical perspectives introduced in the half of the class, it explores current concerns related to the emergence of more recent sensibilities such as contemporary feminism and postmodernism and new concerns generated by globalization, such as immigration and global warming.

Prerequisite(s):

SOC 201 | Urban Sociology | 3 Credits

This course introduces the field of urban sociology. The discipline of sociology arose, in large part, as a response to the rapid urbanization and industrialization of society; as a result, this course focuses primarily on urban dynamics in the United States with attention to the global context in which they operate. It explores the power of social structures using examples drawn primarily from American culture; and the impact of social institutions, the emergence of concrete patterns of social relations, which organize and regulate social life and the inequality inherent in most social structures. Course topics will address areas such as urban poverty, race and ethnicity, residential segregation, housing, neighborhood context, crime and victimization, health, social isolation, culture, and global cities.

Prerequisite(s):

SOC 202 | Social and Wealth Inequalities | 3 Credits

This course reviews contemporary approaches to understanding social inequality and the processes by which it comes to be seen as legitimate, natural, or desirable. We address questions of the following kind: What are the major forms of stratification in human history? Are inequality and poverty inevitable? How many social classes are there in advanced industrialism societies? Is there a “ruling class?” Are lifestyles, attitudes, and personalities shaped fundamentally by class membership? Can individuals born into poverty readily escape their class origins and move upward in the class structure? Are social contacts and “luck” important forces in matching individuals to jobs and class positions? What types of social processes serve to maintain and alter racial, ethnic, and gender discrimination in labor markets? Is there an “underclass?” These and other questions are addressed in light of classical and contemporary theory and research.

Prerequisite(s):

SOC 203 | Sociology of Religion | 3 Credits
This course provides a study of the relations between religion, polity, economy, and social structure; in particular, the political, economic, and social impact of religious beliefs and organizations, as well as the social determination of these beliefs and organizations; the rise of secularism, the rationalization of modern life, and the emergence of political quasi-religions. This course also investigates the organizational dynamics of new religious movements. Seeks to understand why 'cults' emerge and how they proliferate or decay. Examines conflicts within established churches, counter-movements, and the state.

Prerequisite(s):

SOC 301 | Sociology of Health and Wellness | 3 Credits
This course attempts to address the nature of disease, the doctor-patient relationship, the structure and dynamics of health care facilities, the structure and role of medical occupations and their occupational ideologies, the growth of medical technology and its challenge to medicine's moral stability, the medical research process (including ethical issues), problems of discrimination and inequality, as well as health care policy. It also examines the social conditions related to the health of populations. How patterns of health vary by social class, race/ethnicity, and gender and some mechanisms that produce and maintain these differences. Examines health status and healthcare disparities among racial/ethnic minority groups in the United States. Utilize sociological, demographic, (social) epidemiological, and (social) psychological concepts to introduce students to racial/ethnic health disparities research.

Prerequisite(s):

SOC 302 | Sociology of Childhood and Family | 3 Credits
This course takes a sociological approach to the issues, theories, and research on childhood and adolescence. The goals of this course are to understand how life stages are socially constructed and how the lived experiences of youth are influenced by the intersections of varying identities and social locations as well as by social institutions. The course also examines social problems faced by children and youth at both local and global levels. Finally, this course also analyzes the structure and functions of the family, with emphasis on the changing nature of the family in our society. Students will be expected to demonstrate an understanding of family structures and to analyze values underlying family dynamics and change.

Prerequisite(s):

SOC 303 | Sociology of Education | 3 Credits
This course addresses fundamental questions about the relationship between education and society, with a particular focus on why some students learn more and advance further than others; what factors shape how schools are run/organized and which materials are taught; how race/class/gender affect students within schools; and how schools maintain our economic system and can become more effective. Furthermore, it emphasizes the ways in which American education models reproduce, reinforce, and challenge prevailing social, economic, and political relationships; and examines the structures, practices, content, and outcomes of schooling and its relationship to the wider society as well as the rise and dynamics of the modern education system.

Prerequisite(s):

SOC 304 | Topics in Sociology | 3 Credits
Selected topics of contemporary interest taught by a sociologist active in the field. Topics vary and may be substantive, theoretical, or methodological.

Prerequisite(s):

SOC 305 | Aging and the Life | 3 Credits
This service-learning seminar course will examine these processes of aging as they affect individuals, families, cohorts, and societies and how the aging process is affected by psychological, historical, political, economic, and cultural factors. Students explore the dynamic interactions between people and their environments, and the ways in which society's beliefs, values, and attitudes are reflected in the aging experience. Special attention is given to the impact of social policy on the lives of older individuals focusing on how racial, ethnic, class, and gender differences shape the nature of health and human service policy and delivery on behalf of older persons.

Prerequisite(s):

SOC 400 | Community Problems and Solutions | 3 Credits
What is a community social problem? Who defines community problems and social issues? How are social problems constructed and framed? This course attempts to answer the aforementioned questions and more as this course will encourage students to apply a sociological imagination to examine a wide range of contemporary issues and problems in an American urban context. Through a sociological perspective, this course will teach you how to think critically about the relationship between individual biographies and larger social structures and institutional arrangements. To help accomplish this goal, this course will use media, popular culture, service learning, and organizational engagement as a lens within which to recognize and understand not only our own social locations but how we are all connected in an increasingly diverse and global world.

Prerequisite(s):

SOC 401 | Capstone Seminar 1 | 3 Credits
This course begins by revisiting the concept of Christian vocation, which was initially introduced to the student in Pathways to Success. Time will be spent reflecting on the student’s growing sense of vocation during their academic career at the college, and then will be guided in applying that sense of vocation to their present pursuits and to future professional or educational opportunities. This course combines the real-world benefits of an internship with the critical reflection provided by a seminar course through a project-based research group for a real-world client, addressing complex and enduring problems of urban life. Students participate in internships at local agencies and organizations, and may either come with their own internship or apply for specialized internships through the Sociology Department.

Prerequisite(s):

SOC 402 | Capstone Seminar II | 3 Credits
This course includes discussions about career placement and the development of an employment portfolio, including the capstone writing project. The capstone writing project provides the students with an opportunity to demonstrate the skills and knowledge gained as students of Sociology. The course culminates with the presentation of Capstone I and II projects during the annual Senior Seminar.

Prerequisite(s):

THS 140 | Biblical Hermeneutics | 3 Credits
This course provides a basic study of the theory of Biblical interpretations and proper exegetical practices. Required of all students within the first 24 hours of study.

Prerequisite(s):

THS 201 – 202 | Pursuits in Theology I & II | 3 – 3 Credits
The first part of the course is a survey of and intro to Christian Theology. A study will be made of the doctrines of revelation, inspiration, and triune nature of God and Biblical anthropology. The second part of this course is an examination of creation, sin, election, salvation, Christian life, and the church.

Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of OT101-102 or NT101-102, THS140 with a grade of “C” or better.

THS 406 | Contemporary Black Church Theology | 3 Credits
The first section of the course defines Black Theology and analyzes the significant writers and their work. The second section deals critically with the issue of reconciliation as a potential aim of Black Theology as well as the Theological and ethical demands of liberation, considering the practical problems and techniques involved in Black Theology.

Course Descriptions

ANM 6011 | Human Gross Anatomy, Embryology, and Imaging | 9 Credits
The Human Gross Anatomy, Embryology & Imaging course consists of a detailed study of the normal structure, development, and organization of the human body. This course takes a regional approach, rather than a systemic approach to Human Gross Anatomy, Embryology & Imaging and is distributed into three block contents. Gross structures are studied in the laboratory or virtual lab setting by specimen prosection and demonstration. The radiology component of Gross Anatomy serves as the introduction to radiology and prepares the student for further development. Lectures stress the contribution of developmental events to gross anatomical organization and the correlation of this organization with clinically relevant conditions.

ANM 6051 | Histology and Cell Biology | 4 Credits
This course focuses on the study of the different aspects of the internal structure of cells, tissues, and organs in the human body, presenting a comprehensive survey of many of their complex interrelationships. Lectures discuss the cytoarchitecture, clinical correlations are utilized to stress histological changes and their impact on health, and virtual laboratory sessions detail interactive work with slides that show normal and metaplastic specimens.

PHM 6020 | Neuroscience | 5 Credits
The Neuroscience course is designed to give students a foundational knowledge of the human central nervous system that they will use when learning how to diagnose and treat neurological disorders. The course provides students with important principles of neurological function, from cellular and molecular mechanisms of neural communication to the organization and function of sensory and motor systems and higher cognitive function. Students will take virtual or wet-laboratories, clinical correlations and demonstrate mastery of the neurological exam to reinforce knowledge of brain structure and strengthen skills to understand the human nervous system.

BCM 6121 | Medical Biochemistry I | 5 Credits
The Medical Biochemistry courses are presented to medical and graduate students in their first year. The courses are divided in the following units: Structural and functional relationships of proteins, Energy generation and storage from carbohydrate metabolism, Energy Generation and storage from lipid metabolism, Nitrogen metabolism, Gene expression and control, and Medical Genetics. In this course, medical aspects are emphasized to build up the necessary background for future application in other basic sciences and clinical courses.
BCM 6122 | Medical Biochemistry II | 5 Credits
A continuation of Biochemistry I. The components discussed are Energy Generation and storage from lipid metabolism, Nitrogen metabolism, Gene expression and control, and Medical Genetics. Medical aspects are emphasized in this course to build up the required background for future application in other basic sciences and clinical courses. One of the core objectives of the small group discussions is for the medical students to apply the biochemical concepts learned in lectures to comprehend the molecular basis of a given disease.

MIM 6420 | Microbiology I | 4 Credits
During the first year, medical and graduate students learn about the most common pathogens involved in infectious diseases and their characteristics. It includes basic concepts of Immunology, Virology, Mycology, Bacteriology and Parasitology.

PHM 6921 | Physiology I | 4 Credits
Presented to medical and graduate students in their first year. Medical Physiology is organized in a systems-based fashion to teach the normal function of the body and how the systems work. Cell and muscle, cardiovascular, and respiratory are covered. The course is taught in a clinical based format highlighting pathologies and abnormal function of the body.

PHM 6922 | Physiology II | 4 Credits
A continuation of Physiology I, this course consists of recorded lectures, in-class sessions using audience response systems, and Self-Directed Learning, Small Group Discussions, Labs, plus examinations. Components covered include renal and acid-base balance, gastrointestinal, and endocrinology/reproduction. For Physiology II: renal and acid-base balance, gastrointestinal, and endocrinology/reproduction. The course is taught in a clinical based format highlighting pathologies and abnormal function of the body.

IHD 919 | Interprofessional Perspectives in Health Disparities | 1 Credit
This course is designed to provide a general overview of gaps in health outcomes associated with health disparities. A special emphasis will be given to the social determinants of health such as race/ethnicity, social class, socioeconomic status, sex, sexuality, nationality and migration status. The course will focus on the impact of health disparities’ impact at multiple system’s levels (e.g. Individual, patient-clinician, healthcare system, etc.).

MEM 6350 | Medical Ethics | 1 Credit
This course is scheduled as a block of up to 18 contact hours with various instructors and professionals. The goal is to provide didactic experiences for medical and graduate students in specific areas within the field of medical ethics. The need for these experiences stems from the recognition that ethical dilemmas are inherent in medical care. The students will develop an understanding of the principles of medical ethics and a system of ethical reasoning that will result in consistent decisions. The didactic activities will include presentations of clinical cases which have been selected to represent ethical dilemmas similar to those that are likely encountered in real life. Activities include a combination of lectures, assigned readings and small group case discussions covering different subjects within the four main areas of medical ethics, namely: ethical issues of scientific research, ethical issues of the doctor-patient relationship, beginning-of-life and end-of-life ethical issues.
CHRISTIAN SERVICE PROGRAM

In order to graduate from Simmons College of Kentucky, students must complete six community service credits. Each credit occurs over one semester and requires a minimum of 12 participation hours. The goal of this program is to develop the spiritual, intellectual, moral, and social capacities of students while preparing them for lifelong service. Through its service program, students have the opportunity to live out the college’s mission of being agents of change in society.

Student progress in community service is assessed monthly, quarterly, and annually. Students may or may not continue in their original placement, depending on various factors and how well the placement promotes their personal growth.

Students have a myriad of opportunities to serve in situations where they may exercise their skills and obtain real-life experiences of service, gain exposure to the complexities and challenges of work and/or ministry, and expand their horizons. While the college maintains a network with many churches and community organizations where students may serve, students themselves may also propose and with approval of the college, create unique service opportunities so long as they fulfill the requirements of the program. The key is whether the proposed placement will contribute significantly to the educational, spiritual, and moral development of the student and allow sufficient opportunities for personal and professional growth.

The criteria for suitable settings for students in the Christian Service Program include the following:

They should provide competent supervision. (Where there is no supervision or poor supervision, the student will not have a good learning experience.)
They should offer sufficient resources for students to meet their educational goals.

They should afford students a full range of responsibilities that they may face later.

They should offer students an opportunity for initiating action and change. They should provide opportunities for reflection and feedback so that students receive honest appraisals of their work.
They should allow for peer reflection and peer interdependence as students develop a professional identity.

They should affirm the dignity of service and allow students to make a meaningful contribution to the supervising organization.

CAMPUS SECURITY REPORT SIMMONS COLLEGE OF KENTUCKY

A current report on crime statistics for the Simmons College of Kentucky campus and the surrounding streets and sidewalks for the past three years is provided as the “Clery Report” on the college’s website.
